CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT.

Players Who Got in Out of Rain Were H. D. Day of Wampanoag and J. A. Kenyon of Chequamegon.

Rule of Game.

The tournament for the Rhode Island golf championship began yesterday morning over the Aquanah Hunt links, and out of 25 starters 24 arrived in cards, one of whom was disqualified.

The latter, J. A. Gammon, violated a rule by picking up his ball from the rim of the hole instead of laying it in the hole.

Two of the Wampanoag and J. A. Kenyon of the Chequamegon, were disqualified.

They were disqualified because they were playing together, were absent from their participation in the tournament because they were absent from the tournament.
