Any Conkey's Paterson, N. J., team will face the Woonsocket, Minn. League champions at Clinton Oval, Woonsocket, this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the first game of a series of the best two out of three.

Dr. Seymour, George Browne and other well-known former minor league players, including the famous nine-time All-Star and Tommy Doherty will be ready to do the swirling for Woonsocket in this contest. Coakley will pitch for the team. The contest will be held at the aggregation, that captured the honor of the Mill League.

LIBRONS AND OLD COONS.

The Teams of Rival Leagues Will Meet at Palace Garden To-morrow.

The Libron team of the Amateur Circuit and the Old Coons of the City League will be the attraction in the feature game of the Palace garden baseball club to-morrow. The teams played a to-morrow game a few weeks ago finished with a tie score, and since then the following of the lines have been clamoring for a rematch.

Each club holds third position in the league and as the Elmwood boys

Jack Gilmore and Ducharme will wear the boots for the Ames race. The boys and Neville will catch, Morrissey and Jeffy Wilson, the pitching sensation of the season, will serve up the shooes. The old crowd will be in the Easton, a crack Gray backstop, on the receiving end. The umpire, the popular Chick Leary, will hold the indicator and the runner will line up at 3:20 o'clock.

YALE LOSES DISTANCE RUNNER

C. Reed, Ill, Not to Re-Kick College This Fall.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 4.—Owing to a health it was learned there to-day that C. Reed of South Weymouth, Massachusetts, looked up as one of the Yale distance runners, will not be in the fall season. Reed's illness is of a pulmonary nature and Reed plans to go West and spend the winter in California.

Kennedy to be Assistant Coach. New Haven, Conn., Sept. 8.—Formal announcement it is expected may be made soon of the appointment of John Kennedy, former coach of the Yale crew, as assistant to James O. Rodgers, Yale's recently appointed head coach of the Yale navy. Rodgers is said to have expressed his desire some time ago as unwilling to

New York, Sept. 9.—America scored heavily today in the first of the series of preliminary matches, to determine whether players of this country or of Great Britain shall constitute the challenge team for the Davis international tennis cup, now held by Australia. Two matches decided today, one of the turf courts of the West Side Tennis Club and both were won by Americans, whom were pitted two to two against the foremost exponents of the game in the world.

'NEW ENGLANDERS' WIND UP SEASON

Fall River Loses Closing Game

New Bedford, 6-2.

LOWELL CAPTURES PENNA

Worcester Makes Great Finish in Little League Series.

Boston, Sept. 9.—The 1911 baseball season of the New England League closed today with the final game of the season scheduled, New Bedford, 7 to 6, over Fall River. The contest in no way reflected the controversy for the championship which Lowell secured yesterday. The Worcester team, by planning a victory over Fall River, had secured the championship, but the Lowell team, by winning today's game, had secured the championship.
