Reardon, Smith in All-Star reunion tonight

By STEVEN KRASNER

Journal-Bulletin Sports Writer
TORONTO — The bullpen wasn't big bugh for both of them.
Jeff Reardon strolled into the Boston Red Sox' spring-training headquarters in 1990, toting a 3-year, $6.8-million contract and 266 toting a 3-year, $0.8-million contract and 200 career saves. Lee Smith sauntered into the same locker room, $4 saves in his Red Sox ploister and 234 notches overall on his belt. So who was going to be the 10p gun, Rear-don or Smith?

The Red Sox steadfastly insisted the two the public declaration Reardon didn't think so. Neither did Smith. They both knew one of them had to go, and they both knew it would be Smith.

They were right. Smith was shipped to the St Louis Cardinals for Tom Brunansky on May 4, 1990.
Yesterday, Reardon and Smith crossed paths again, but this time with none of the tension that existed when they both wore Red Sox uniforms. Both are All-Stars again. There were smiles all around as Reardon celebrated

Sox uniforms, soin are Aii-Star's again. There were smiles all around as Reardon celebrated his fourth All-Star selection, Smith his th.rd. Tonight, SkyDome will be plenty big enough to welcome them both, two of the major leagues' best closers who very easily could wind up in the Hall of Fame.

The two relievers just weren't cut out to share a bullpen in Boston.

share a bullpen in Boston.
"The real happy Lee made the team," said Reardon, "Me and Lee respect each other."
"Jeff's not doing too bad for a guy who wasn' drafted," said Smith with a smile.
Indeed, Reardon, who signed with the New York Mets as an undrafted free agent in 1977, has put himself into solid position for a Hall of Fame plaque.

Hall of Fame plaque. He has 21 saves (in 24 chances) this year.

Tonight

62nd All-Star Game at conto's Skydome 8 p.m. (a) (7) (3) WICE Radio career saves, second to all-time leader Rollie career saves, second to all-time leader Rollie Fingers (341).

Smith also is positioning himself for Hall of Fame membership, His 23 saves (in 26 opportunities) this season have boosted his career total to 288.

But in the winter of 1989, the Red Sox had

Turn to PITCHERS, Page C-3

LONG REACH: Second-seeded Christian Saceanu stretches to return the ball hit by Neil Borwick in second set during Tennis Hall of Fame Championships yesterday at Newport Casino. Saceanu won.

3 seeds bow in Newport tennis

NEWPORT — Three seeded players bid an early farewell to the 1991 Miller Lite Hall of Fame Ten-

1991 Miller Lite Hall of Fame Tenins Championships yesterday, losing first-round matches on the grass courts of Newport Cassino.
The unhappiest loser was No. 3 seed Patrick Bauer of Germany, who dropped a three-setter to unseeded Bryam-Shelton of Atlanta, Ga. 5-7, 6-1, 5-7.
Asked for comment after his defeat, Bauer continued to the locker room, yelling over his shoulder,
"What for! What for, when you have calls like that!"

Bauer referred to what he considered to be a questionable call on a Shelton ace late in game 11 of the world, thought the ball was outside the center line. His appeal for the world, thought the ball was outside the center line. His appeal for the unpire's overrule was denied, and he never regained his composure, losing seven of the next nine points and the match.

Other seeded players who fell yesterday were No. 6 Dan Goldie of Redwood City, Callf. — the 1987 Hall of Fame singles champion — who lost to Italy's usseeded Glanluca Pozzi, 7-5, 3-6, 4-6.

Eighth-seeded Henrik Holm of Sweden dropped a three-setter to wild-card entry Paul Annacone of East Hampton, N.Y., 6-4, 4-6, 6-7 (8-6),

No. 2 seed Christian Saccanu, a native of Romania now living in Germany, advanced to the second round by defeating Australia's Nell Borwick, 6-3, 7-5. Fourth-seed Jacco Eltingh of the Netherlands beat Keith Evans of Memphis Tenn., 6-3, 7-1, 6-1, Lansing, Mich., Todd Martin of Lansing, Mich., topped Joey Rive of West Palm Beach, Pla., 7-5, 6-3, and California's Alex Reichel defeated Francisco Montana of Miami, 7-6, 1-6, 7-5, Johnathan Stark of Medford, Ore., beat Bruce Steel of La Jolla, Calif., 6-4, 6-1, while Jared Palmer of Saddlebrook, Fla., downed Brett Steven of New Zealand 6-2, 7-6 (8-6). Glenn Layendecker of Brook-line, Mass., outlasted Australia's Jamie Morgan, 1-6, 7-6 (8-5), 7-6 (14-12).

Annacone's triumph highlighted yesterday's action. At 28, the former University of Tennessee star is on a comeback from a five-year slide that saw him drop to No. 240 in the tennis rankings.

slide that saw him drop to No. 240 in the tennis rankings.

Because of a chronic toe problem that required surgery last January, Annacone, who reached the quarterfinals of the doubles competition

Turn to TENNIS, Page C-2

Henrih Holm vesterday. Annacone won in three sets.

Potowomut contingent glows in R.I. Amateur

By KEVIN McNAMARA

WARWICK — If the first day of medal play is any indication, this week's Rhode Island Amateur could week's Rhode Island Amateur could be renamed the Potowomut Open. Three of the top four scorers have ties to Potowomut, which just hap-pens to be the site of the state's top amateur golfing event this year. While the home course advantage definitely came into play, the names at the top of the leader board would be prime contenders on any layout. Rod Butcher and Doug Robinson led the field yesterday with ope-un-

Briefly

SCOREBOARD

JOURNAL LINE

Internat'l League 3613

Call Journal Line at 277-7777. Enter 4627 and a category code:

der par 70s. Pat Sheehan and Mike Ryan are a shot back at 71. Sheehan is the only non-Potowomut member in the group, but the University of hartford senior works at the course and plays it regularly. Potowomut's Don Wright is among a group of five players at 72. Medal play continues today. The top 32 scorers, after ties, begin match play tomorrow. The tournament continues through Friday. Coming into the week, Butcher would be considered one of the father than the property of the property of

Turn to AMATEUR, Page C-6

Journal-Bulletin Photo by ANDY DICKERMAN TOUR PRO Brad Faxon (left) gives some pointers to Harold Holland during charity golf at Warwick

Faxon's streak icing on cake for charity

WARWICK - Brad Faxon was in the WARWICK — Birad Faxon was in the middle of one of the best streaks he has had on a golf course this year. He had just recorded six consecutive 3's on the back nine at Warwick Country Club. He had bridded 11 and 12, parred 13, birdied 14, eagled 15 (chip from 50 feet), then rolled in a 12-footer on the 18th. As Faxon waited to hit his tee shot on the par-3, 17th hole, he wasn't talking about how well he was playing. The eighth-year, PGA Tour pro from R. 1. Country Club was talking about dwy he was playing sesterday at Quarwick. "The best thing about days like this is that they let everyone know why we're that they let everyone know why we're here," Faxon said. "At breakfast this morning, they told everyone about In-morning, they could Sight."

"The pros who are here don't just come and then leave. They "The pros who are here don't just come in, start playing and then leave. They know whom they are helping." Faxon said. "And the amateurs get to know that the money they are spending is worthwhile. It's going to help people."

Anyone who watches professional golf on television has seen the commercials about the pride the PGA takes in helping charities. The PGA proclaims that the tour's leading money winner each year is never Curtis Strange or Mark Calcavee chian of Greg Norman. It's Charity.

PAUL KENYON

Since its first charity event in 1938, the PGA has contributed some $170 million to charities across the country. Last year alone, PGA events turned over $20 million for charity. The LPGA and Senior PGA help, too. This week's Senior Tour event at Newport will benefit the Vanderbilt Rehabilitation Center at Newport Hospital.

Turn to KENYON, Page C-6

Tobin seeking 2nd title in row

Journal-Bulletin Sporta Writer
NORTH KINGSTOWN — Anne
Marie Tobin hopes to defend her tittle in the 35th annual New England Women's Golf Association Championship that gets under way today at Quidnessett Country Club.
Tobin annual New Institute Challman

Quidnessett Country Club.
Tobin, who plays out of Bellevue Country Club in Massachusetts, is one of three former champions to compete in the three-day, 54-hole stroke play tournament that tees off at 8.a.m. Tobin, who fired a 219 to beat Kim Erickson of New Hampshire by two strokes last year at New Hampshire's North Conway Country Club, is among a field of 34 Bay Staters, the most golfers from any of the six competing states. Rhode Island Women's Golf Association champion Donna Warner, from Wanumetonomy Country Club, leads a talented group of local smatters trying to break the 11-year drought since the New England title has been won by a Rhode island golfer. Linda Miller was the ast to do it in 1979.

island golfer. Linda Miller was the ast to do it in 1979.
Rhode Island Country Club's Jue Greene, an eight-time Rhode Island champion finishing second to Warner this year, won the New Ingland crown in 1971 and '78, and was among the golfers who yester-day played a practice round at the beautiful 5.878-yard course that vertooks Natraeansett Base.

verlooks Narragansett Bay. Other Rhode Islanders figuring to make a run at the New England title include Lisa Griffin of Misquamicut and Charlene Petrone of Valley, semi-finalists in the RIWGA championship halo at. Airkbrae Country Club last month. Griffin was also the medalist in that tournament.

N.E. WOMEN'S GOLF -CHAMPIONSHIP

The host state, which failed to place anyone in the top 10 last year, has 28 amateurs among the 102 entries; Connecticut, led by 1986 champ Barbara Young, has 20 golf-ers competing, while New Hampshire, with Nicole Tombs, Dana Harrity, and Erickson, has a low-handicapped group of 12. Mained with its own Julie Green, the 1996 state champion, brings five golfers. Rhode Islanders have won the New England Championship six times. Joanne Carner was the first, with back-to-back wins in 1966 and 157. Martha Kirouac won the title in 73, sandwiched around wins by Greene, in 71 and 78, before Miller captured the last Rhode Island 157. Martha Kirouac won the title in 73, sandwiched around wins by Greene, in 71 and 78, before Miller captured the last Rhode Island Ledgemont -Crest wood.

Each Ners ago at Crestwood.

Each Ners ago at Crestwood.

Each Ners ago at Grestwood.

Each Ne

Amateur

Continued from Page C-1

Continued from Page C-1 vorites. The Florida Southern senior is coming off a top 10 finish in the prestigious Northeast Amateur and is always among the leaders in Rhode Island events. If not for a double bogey on the 18th yesterday, Butcher would have held a two-shot lead. He says the Potowomut advantage is over-played.

Summary on Page C-4.

"It's not as big as people say it is,"
Butcher said. "We never play the course with rough this high or green that fast so it's not the same as usual. I don't think it's that big a thing."
Robinson is much more of a surprise. In fact, he says most of the potowomat members simply call him "Doug" because they don't know his last name.
Robinson, 25, is a Rochester, N.Y. Robinson, 25, is a Rochester, N.Y. autive and has been a Potowomat member for only two years. He played his first R.I. Amateur last year and wasn't a factor. A Brown year and wasn't a factor. A Brown gentalete, Robinson said he also saw a change in jha home course.
"I noticed the greens being much faster than normal," Robinson said

faster than normal," Robinson said.
"I loosened up on the practice green and my first put on the first green went eight feet by the hole. I think I hit another one 10 feet by.
"A start like this helps a lot," Robinson added. "It takes a little pressure off for tomorrow."
Among yesterday's top four, only Ryan had to battle the stiffer afternoon winds. Scores climbed into the 80s for much of the field that didn't have an early tee time.
"I'm glad I play early tomorrow," said Wannamoisett's Tom Goryl, who survived the winds better than most with a 74." I was hitting driver and three wood on holes I've hit driver and six for no fefor. The wind was stiff."

Three former Rhode Island Amadriver and six Iron before. The wind was stiff."

Three former Rhode Island Amateur champions are all within reach. Paul Quigley, the winner in 1987 and '88, had trouble with his putting game yet still shot 75. Marc St. Martin ('84 and '88) overcame a horrid start to shoot 74.

"Im happy because I started five over after the first six holes," said St. Martin, a Kirkhrae member. "I just couldn't find the groove early."
Dr. Gorge Prine of Valley, the 1989 titlist, shot a 78. Brett Quigley, the defending champion, is ineligible since he turned pro in May.

3rd stage to de Wilde: Sorensen retains lead

DIJON, France (AP) — The third stage of the Tour de France gave an drea of what to expect for the next week of racing on mostly flat roads. Filenne de Wilde of Belgium won sesterday's 131-mile stage from Virserhanne toward Dijon in 5 hours, 15 minutes, 11 seconds. The pack came behind in the same time and the overall standings remained unchanged.

some time and the overall standings remained unchanged.

Tenmark's Rolf Sorensen was reading for the second consecutive day 10 seconds shead of three-time thampion Greg LeMond, the only American to win the Tour de France. Erik Breukink of the Nethrands was third, two seconds between the tendent of the ten Roche went to apologize early esterday to the organizers of the our for arriving seven minutes late the second stage, a team trial.

The second stage, a team trai.

At the last moment, we were tarting earlier than we expected on Roche wasn't around, so it ann't his fault if he missed the art said Roche's teammate, Jean-laude Colorti.

Four officials said they were eased by Roche's attitude after his immation, although many people are disappointed to see Roche out the race's occur.

ere disappointed to see succe our the race so early.

Roche left for Beigium and the mrs headquarters, according to our officials.

Meanwhile, De Wilde attacked to before the last sprint of the race d won the stage in the last half-Only Ireland's Sean Kelly moved a little among the top five. He ned four seconds, although he stayed in the fourth position, 22 sec-onds behind.

onds behind.

Kelly came in second after the first sprint of the stage, earning a four-second bonus.

The 35-year-old Irishman is one of the Tour de France's senior veterans, along with Gilbert Duclos-Lassalle of France, who is 37.

Tour glance

ground.

WEATHER: It was the third consecutive hot and humid day. During the stage, temperatures rose to 85 degrees.

III STATE WINNER: Etienne de Wilde of Belgium, who finished in 5 hours, 15 minutes and 11 seconds.
Nearly all of the other riders finished in Neury all of the other index finished in the same time.

BUVERALL LEADER: Rolf Scrensers Observate holds the lead for the second consecutive day.

BHOW THE FAVORITES
FARED: All the leaders finished in the second consecutive day.

BHOW THE FAVORITES
FARED: All the leaders finished in the overall standings remain unchanged forget lambde. Like Screen and the loverall standings remain unchanged forget lambde. Else screen to the screen and the coveral standings remain unchanged in the coverage of the stage women and the leaders. The screen and the leaders for the screen and the scree 2:40.

Iff QUOTE OF THE DAY: "Breuknk is a favorite. He has a very good chance of winning the Tour. But Le-Mond is really the big favorite." — Sean Kelly, who has been riding in Tours de France since 1978.

ESCAPING: Ron Hall hits out of sand trap on 17th hole during Insite charity golf at Warwick Country Club yesterday.

Kenyon

Continued from Page C-1

Continued from Page C-1

Anyone who spends any time around the sport knows that golf and charity go hand-in-hand in this area, too. While Faxon and nearly 30 other pros were at Warwick yesterday for the sixth annual InSight Invitational, there were charity events at several other clubs in Rhode Island. At most of them the day was more low key. Instead of pros, local charity fields usually consist of bankers, insurance men, attorneys, salesmen and golfers from other professions.

professions.
Still, the bottom line is the same

Still, the bottom line is the same. People get together and use golf to help others in need. True, the sport has problems it must solve. There are racial issues and occasions when women play-ers receive second-class treatment. But give credit where credit is due. The best development in golf during the last decade is the prolif-cardit of charity events on all lev-els. The In-Sight Invitational is the surpreme example of it in this area.

surpreme example of it in this area.

In-Sight is the idea of Thomas F.
Gilbane Jr. The Gilbane Company can build just about anything an architect can design. But not many construction companies can build the kind of good feelings that resulted yesterday at Warwick.

We have so many worthwhile
We have so many worthwhile
Potowomut we have about 20 scheduled this year. 'said Mike Harbour, head pro at Potowomut
and one of the participants yesterday.

and one of the participants yester-day.

"We've had events at our place to help the Triudeau Center, for Big Brothers. We have one coming up to help a program that deals with drug prevention," Harbour said.
But this one is the cream of the crop. It's a special day for us as club pros. with the way we are treated. And it's special for the sport."

ctuo pros, with the way we are treated. And it's special for the sport."

Gilbane, drawing on experiences Gilbane, drawing on experiences when we was living in cleveland, has made In-Sight that way. Each year he arranges to have 15 PGA and Senior PGA pros at Warbick, Faxon, Billy Andrade and Pat Horgan were there yesterday, and so were Ian Baker-Finch, Chris ow were Ian Baker-Finch, Chris Pitteen readient pros were there, Fincen readient pros were there, too, Fred Bruno, the pro at RICC, too, Fred Bruno, the pro at RICC, too, Fred Bruno, the pro at RICC, and the prosent proposed to the prosent proposed to the prosent proposed to the proposed to the prosent proposed to the prosent proposed to the proposed to the prosent proposed to the prosent proposed to the proposed to t

Gilbane lifts himself, too

himself, too

WARWICK — Tom Gilbane
Jr. won his own tournament yesterday.

The 'team of Gilbane, Jim'
Field. Ronnie Boss and Bill Field. Ronnie Boss
Steve Napoll, combined for a 22-under-par 116 and won the
In-Sight Invitational at Warwick Country Club.
Gilbane is the organizer and chairman of the tournament.
His team tied for first (the two best-bails determine the score) with the team of Bill Lunnie,
Mario Fernandes, Bill Young
Mario Fernandes, Bill Young
Mario Fernandes, Bill Young
Mario Fernandes, Bill Young
Mario Boss Backington, with Mario George Backington is the famed designer who built the famed designer who built the famed designer who built Marwick Course. Gilbane's team won on matching cards.
Low tour pros for the daywere Larry Silveira 66, Charlie Coody 67 and Braf Faxon 68.
Low resident pros were GaryJoresi of Green Valley 70, Tom

Low resident pros were Gary Dorsi of Green Valley 70, Tom Green of Quidnessett and Mike Harbour of Potowomut 72, and McBride of Hillside, 73.

Hunt and host pro Peter Duffy, who helped make arrangements for the day, took part, too.

But the scoring was secondary. The big reason for playing was to raise money to help Rhode Islanders. In-Sight, formerly the R. I. Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired, provides community-based, rehabilitation programs to help blind and visually Impaired persons lead productive lives. In-Sight is not an arm of a national organization. It is Rhode Islanders' helping Rhode Islanders.

The golf tournament is not for everyone. Individuals who play must pay $85.0. A corporate sponsure of the Sight of t $50,000-$65,000.

But the best part of all is yet to come. Before the year is out, money caused year that yet is out, money caused year fared will benefit 3,000 sight-impaired Rhode Islanders. By the end of the summer, another 100 or so events will raise much more. No one keeps records on how much money golf raises for charity, but a guess probably would start in seven figures. That's something everyone connected with the sport can be proud of.

Brett Quigley leads field in N.E. Classic qualifying

FOXBORO, Mass. — Two Quig-leys and four R. I. Country Club products will play in this week's $1-million New England Classic at Pleasant Valley Country Club in Sutton. Mass.

Pleasant Valley Country Club in Sutton, Mass.

Brett Quigley, who a year ago at this time was on his way to winning the R.I. Amateur, earned a berth yesterday when he fired a 5-under 67 at Foxboro Country Club. That was the low score in the field of 126 players who competed for four qualifying spots at Pleasant Valley.

Quigley, a recent graduate of the University of South Carolina who turned pro one month ago, finished turned pro one month ago, finished to the proper on the proper of th

"It was about an inch away, dead in the hole," Quigley said. "There were a couple people watching at the green and they said they couldn't believe! It didn't go in." It was a couple people watching at the green and they said they couldn't believe! It didn't go in." It was a couple people watch to green and the green and the green and the green and the green and gr

With Dana and Brad."

Other late entries in the field include Connecticut's Ken Green and two former-champions in the World Series of Golf, Dan Pohl and Denis Watson.

Rutgers' Wenzel says no to S.C. hoop coach job

Rutgers basketball coach BOB WENZEL said yesterday he has turned down the coaching job at South Carolina.

"It came down to a gut feeling this was the best thing for me and my family." Wenzel said. "I've said many times I love my job here and have been treated well."

Wenzel, a former South Carolina substant, said he'd been offered the property of the said he'd been finalists.

Spoonhour withdrew as a candidate on Saturday. He said he had become impatient with South Carolina's indecisiveness after he interviewed for the job on June 26.

Holland, a former Virginia coach, said he wanted to remain at Davidson, where he has been on the job only one year. Holland has overseen Davidson's entry into the Southern Conference.

Dayldson's entry linto the Southern Conference.

... NCAA officials have recommended that the Final Four in women's basketball be held at the Richmond Coliseum in 1994. Virginia Commonwealth would be the host of the tournament on April 2-3, 1994, said RICHARD SANDER, the school's director of athletics. The ecommendation must be approved by the NCAA Executive Committee on Aug. 12-13.

The committee also recommended Minneapolis as host of the 1995 women's Final Four.

TENNIS

Wimbledon champion STEFFI GRAF played the tournament with shoulder, wrist and arm injuries and would with have pulled out of any lesser comments
tion, her father said yesterday.
"She was hurt
before the tournament started If it

T. "She was hurt before the tournament started. If it had been any other event, there is no way she would have played," PE-TER GRAF said. He reported that his many other event, there is no way she would have played," PE-TER GRAF said. He reported that his said was a said. He reported that his said was said. He was Graff's first Grand Siam the lein 18 months. During that time, she was troubled by injuries, illness and publicity over a paternity suit against her father.

"This result at Wimbledon is the most important of her career," Peter Graf said." It's a new beginning, but she needs four of five months before he is really back to the form she wants to be in." APAL SLOZIL, said the three-time Wimbledon champ was so depressed early this farm at the three-time Wimbledon champ was so depressed early this farm that she thought about nutrities be was so depressed early this year that she thought about quitting the sport.

GOLF

GREG NORMAN's reaction to giving away the Western Open may provide some insight as to Just how far down the troubled Australian star had been.
"A big boost to my confidence;
my confidence is up by 70 percent," Norman said after a stumbling finish cost him the title last weekend in the Western Open.
The comment is creditable only in the sense that Norman sees his playing slump and the mental funk that has plagued him since last summer
as having bottomed out.
There was both good and bad in

as having bottomed out.

There was both good and bad in his puzzling performance at the Dubsdread course at Cog Hill as he squandered a five-shot lead after 10 holes of the final round by bogeying four holes in a row, playing the back nine in 40 and handing the title to RUSS COCHRAN.

nine in 40 and handing the title to RUSS COCKHAN.

... Austria's HORST SKOFF upset sixth-seeded JAKOB HLASEK of Switzerland, 6-4, 7-6 (7-4), yester-day in the first round of the $305,000 Swiss Open tennis tourna-ment. AARON KRICKSTEIN of the United States, ranked 51st, oussed

SPORTS SHORTS

SOCCER

The U.S. team coached by BORA MILUTINOVIC made and on its special assignment in winning the Gold Cup as first champion of soccer's Confederation of North and Central American and Caribbean Association Football.

American and Caribbean Association Football.

ALAN ROTHENBERG, president of the U.S. Soccer Federation, had ordered Milutinovic to win so that the U.S. players could practice their victory lap for the 1994 World Cup, suggesting that, despite all those years as the president of the NBA Clippers, Rothenberg had not lost his sense of humor.

But the U.S. team, which has lost only one of 10 matches since the enw coach took over in May, scored a 2-0, upset victory over Mexico Priday night and then defeated Honduras on penalty kicks, 4-3, after a scoreless regular game, Sunday for the title.

TRACK AND FIELD

TRACK AND FIELD

South Africa officially requested readmittance to the International Amateur Athletics Federation today and asked for speedy acceptance so it can compete in the world track and field championships in August.

The request followed an amnouncement last Friday that South Africa had compiled with an LAAF requirement and formed a unified, non-racial sports body. The IAAF and also linked admission to the abolishment of apartheid. The South African government repealed all major apartheid laws last month.

"I'm pleased to officially announce here in Athens that we have succeeded in creating a new, unique federation in which athletes of all race and color will be represented," IAAF president PRIMO NEBIOLO said.

NAMES

Knicks may file tampering charge against Warriors

The New York Times

NEW YORK — Responding

NEW YORK — Responding

to the game of hardhall being played by Patrick Ewing and his agent, David Falk, the New York Knicks are exploring the possibility of filing tampering charges with the National Bas ketball Association against the Golden State Warriors.

A person close to the Ewing contract situation said yester cate that the contract situation said yester

cate that the contract situation said yester
cate that the contract situation in the contract situation said yester cate that the contract extension with the state of the Knicks responding that a clause in his contract entitles him to be a restricted free signification contending that a clause in his contract entitles

him to be a restricted free

signification on the contract entitle him to be a restricted free agency

if Ewing was not among the league's top four players in sal

ray by June 1, is not in effect

because Ewing is among the

league's top four players in sal ary by June 1, is not in effect

because Ewing is among the

league's top four players in sal
ary by June 1, is not in effect

because Ewing is among the

league's top four players in sal
streng the same of the contract which allowed for free agency

who spoked on the person

of the contract of the person

who spoked on the person who spoked against the person

where son and thus insure Ewin stricted free agency.

1	o	,	. 8	ø
8		4		H
в		Ľ	4	L

	Golf		12	and a company of the second
	R.I. AMATEUR TNY.	Harry McMichael, Co	ryVew - 87	97. David Canipe	93.358
	At Petewomut Country Club Rod Butcher Petewomut 70	Robert Bigonnette, I	Cristrae 88	98. Steve Jones	92.517
	Doug Robinson, Potowomut 20	Brian Rabitor, unatta Walter Quinn, Jr., Cr	ched 88 estwood 88		92.224 FADERS
	Mike Ryan, Potowomus 71 Pat Sheehan, W. Greens 71	Bob Garganese, Sea Greg Farrell, unattac		1. Pat Brackey	$441,643
	Dori Woght Potowomus 72	David Noil, Triggs	89	3. Meg Malion	404,948 310,773
	Brad Edgerton, Wanumetomy 72 W.F. Campbell, Jr. Wanmtomy 72	Brian Warrener, smat Mark Charlee, RICC	tached 91 92	4. Ayako Okamoto	275,114
	Jim Statman, RICC 72	Art Cola II. Metacom	et DNF	6. Dotte Mochie	274,618 248,664
	John O'Brien Cranston 72 Marc St. Martin, Kirkbrae 74	Peter Edes, Wanume PGA MONEY L		7. Colleen Walker 8. Deb Richard	243,335
	Tom Grzyi. Wannamoisett. 74	1. Corey Pavin	$750,996	9. Jane Geddes	230,589 220,891
	Tom Acciardo, Cranston 74 Matt Lucchesi, Kikibrae 74	2. Lanny Wadkins 3. Steve Pate	587,848 543,887	10 Betsy King 11 D. Amapane	218,530 206,198 •
	Paul Guigley, RICC. 75 John Godinho, Pawtiscket 75	4. Fred Couples	487,733	12. Judy Dickinson	190,056
	Richard Sweich, Metacomet 75	 Rocco Mediate Ian Woosnam 	484.982 481.848	 Amy Aicott Rosie Jones 	188,670 159,259
	James Bjorge Triggs 75 Charles Haves, Wanumtomy 75	7. Davis Love III	469.704	15. Nancy Lopez	153,772
	Mike McCormick: Triggs 75	8. Tom Purtzer 9. Billy Andrade	469,596 460,936	 Tammie Green Barb Bunkowsky 	147,177 124,305
	Dan Gregan, RICC 76 Jeff Grover, Potowomut 76	10. Paul Azinger 11. Jay Don Blake	448 423	18. S Sternhäuer	121.278
	Stevn Travis, Wanumetonomy, 76	12. Hale Irwin	420,194 417,061	19. Leura Davies 20. Cindy Ranck	118,528
	John C. Buws, Sakonnet 76 Norm Lytz, Paintucket 77	13. Nolan Henke 14. Mike Hubert	400,168 399,306	21 Ok-Hee Ku 22 Kris Tschetter	111,765
	Harvey Bennett, Warwick 77 Joe Maricili, Pt. Judsth 77	15. Jeff Sluman	391,955	23 Lynn Connelly	106,633
	Greg Richard Kirkbrae 77	 Steve Exington Russ Cochran 	389,145 385,559	24. Chris Johnson 25. Holks Stacy	105,597
	Steve Sampson, Crestwood 77 Make Mansour Valley 77	18. John Cook	377,927	26. Michelle McGann	100,540
	Dr. George Pine: Valley 78	 Mark Brooks Crang Stadler 	377.067 373.212	27. Dawn Coe 28. Kristi Albers	98,478 83,830
	30e Fogarty, Potowomut 78 Kyle Phelps, Green Valley 78	21 Andrew Magee	372.919	29. Sally Little	90.448
	Kevin Clary, Potowomut 78	22 Fuzzy Zoeller 23 Nick Price	369,639 367,872	30. Missie McGeorge 31. Benny Hammel	87.312 86.827
	M.B. Hogan, Triggs 78 Rick Arrighi, Cranston 78	24. Payne Stewart	361.071	32. Laurel Kean	82,422
	Matt Brennan, Warwick (878)	25. Ian Baker-Finch 26. Kenny Perry	360,850 332,711	33. Juli Inkster 34. Caroline Kega	82,979 80,775
	Kevin McLaughlin, Montaup 78 Norman Lajole, Triggs 78	27. Curtis Strange 28. Tom Watson	331.579	35. Tina Barrett	78.288
	Cosmo Minicuco, Cranstoli 78 Chris Baetzel, Cranston 78	29. Scott Hoch	316,239 316,132	36: Brande Burton 37: Alice Miller	78.260 75.444
	Anthony lasa, Wanumetonomy 79	30 Mark O Meara 31 Scott Simpson	315,630 313,305	38. JoAnne Carner 39. Lon Garbacz	73,487 70,884
	Scott Marshall, W. Greens. 79 Peter Erickson: Potowomus. 79	32. Tom Kite	309.913	40. Amy Benz	69,148
	Cam Moore, Wanumetonomy 79	33. Bob Tway 34. Chip Beck	296.379 294.512	41 Elaine Crosby 42 Dana Lofland	65,994 65,342
	Herb Stevens, Potowomut 79 Steve Cole, Valley 79	35. John Huston	284,914	43. S. Maynor	64,912
	Bernie McCrink, Triggs 79	36 M Calcavecchi 37 Ted Schulz	282,591 271,814	44 S. Furtong 45 Lynn Adams	62,731 62,201
	Jim McBride, unattached 79 Michael DiPietro, Triggs 79	38. Jim Hallet	267,925	46. Vicki Fergon	62,122
	Brian Owens, Cranston 79	39 Gene Sauers 40 Kenny Knox	264,239 259,371	47 Laura Baugh 48 Martha Nause	61,920 61,776
	Täd Constant Triggs 79 Dan Chabot Triggs 79	41 Bruce Letzke 42 Tom Seckmann	245.903 244.550	49. Jody Anschutz	60.367
	Gary Pannone, Potowomut 80	43. Greg Norman	243,081	50 H. Kobayashi 34	59.869
	Dan Najanan, Valley 80 Emmett Cooney, Wanumtnmy 80	44 Ray Floyd 45 David Edwards	239,269 222,445	PGA STATIST	CS
	Paul Petrarca, Quidnessett 80 Jim Squadrito, Quidnessett 80	45 Hal Sutton	213,663	1, Corey Pavin, 69:
	Charles Blanchard, Warwick 80	47 Bob Lohr 48 Larry Muze	212.846 198.441	Baker-Finch, 69.72. Lietzke, 69.77. 4, Frei	3. Bruce d Couples.
	Dr. Paul Barber. Potowornut 80 Charles Toscano, Winnapaug 80	49. B# Britton	198,011	69.80. 5. Steve Pate,	59.86, 6,
	Jack Bertherman, Metacomet 80	50. Fred Funk 51. Loren Roberts	197.982 196.006	Tom Watson, 69.87. 7, 69.88. 8, Scott Simps
	Kevin Morrison, Triggs 80 Tom Murphy, W. Greens 80	52. Phil Blackmar	195,901	9. Crarg Stadler, 70.01.	10, Lanny
	Peter Lauretti, Quonset 80	53. Brian Claur 54. Andy Bean	189.958 186.019	Wackers, 70.04. DRIVING DISTA	NCE
	David Schachter, Ledgemont 81 Bruce Wilks, Agawam Hunt 81	55. K. Clearwater 56. Ben Crenshaw	183.554	1. John Daly, 286.8
	Charlie Graham, W. Warwick 81 Don Hamington, Winnapaug 81	57 J. M. Olazabal	177,663 176,074	Norman, 282.6: 3, Fre 277.1: 4, Dan Forsman	275.4.5.
	Don Hamington: Winnapaug. 81 Jory laciofano: Metacomet. 81	58. G#Morgan 59. Rick Fetz	171,008	Tom Purtzer, 273-3, 6, 0 man, 273-2, 7, Mark Cal	reg Whs
	Shane Rice, Valley 81 Nick Coe Jr., RICC 81	60 Bob Glober	166,700	273.0. B. Neal Lancast	er, 272.9
	Water Quent, Crestwood 81	61 Tim Simpson , 62 Bobby Wadkins	162,395 160,767	 Ed Humenik. 272.4 Pohl. 272.3. 	10, Dan
	Joe Occhi. Green Valley 81 - Joe Pieranunzi, Triggs 81	63. B. McCallister	157,819	DRIVING ACCUR
	Mike Lombards, Craniston 81	64: Dan Forsman . 65: Ed Dougherty	155,016 152,734	1, Larry Nelson, .794, win, .791, 3, Larry Mize
	Joe laciofano Sr., Metcomet 82 Joe Curran, Lincoln., 82	66 Buddy Gardner	150.705	lan Baker-Finch, 783. 5	itsel, Da
	Louis Murphy, Wanuminmy 82	67. Dave Rummells 68. Wayne Levi	148,573	vid Edwards and Fred Fi 7 Itiel, Fulton Allem a
	Tom Hebert, Glocester 82 Jim Kelleher, unattached 82	69: Jay Haas 70: Bill Sander	141,452	Strange, 775, 9, D.A.
	William Páriseau, Valley 82	71 Dan Halldorson -	134 122 133.851	773. 10. Doug Tewell, GREENS IN REGUL	ATION
	Mark Harrington, Winnapg 82 Ed Mauro, Pt. Judith 83	72: Gary Holberg 73: Doug Tewell	130,596 128,973	1, Bruce Letzke, 741 Zoefer, 721, 3, Rocco
	Mark Carner, Valley 83 John Conley, Wannamossett 84	74. David Frost	122.685	720: 4, Hal Sutton, 715	5. 5, Steve
	Barry Westall, Wanumetonomy 84	75: Jay Delsing 76: Stan Utley	121.997	Pate, 714. 6 (tre), David and Tom Purtzer, .707.
	John Nickowal, Wampanoag 84 Matthew Hall, Wannamossett 84	77 Brad Bryant	121,350	Perry705.
	Mike Lurgio, Wanumetonomy 84	78. Billy Maytae 79. MAe Smith	119,597	1. Don Pooley, 1.72
	Dan St. Laurent, unattached 84 Scott Cooke, Potowomut 85	80. Jim Gallagher Jr.	119,196	Baker-Finch and Core	y Pavin,
	James Taylor, Triggs 85	81 Bob Wolcott 82 Howard Twitty	118,152 115,166	1.731. 4, Dave Rumo Scott Sympson, 1.733.
	Tom Siler Quonset 85 Leo Marcotte Jr., Triggs 85	83. Mike Springer	112,916	Huston and Kenny Knox,	1.734.8.
	Chris Hurd, Warwick BS	84. Bernhard Langer 85. John Daly	112.539 112.490	Jay Don Blake, 1.735. Rinker, 1.741, 10, Mike
	Richard Farrell, City View 86 Jim Tobojka, Alone 86	86. Jeff Maggert 87. Jode Mudd	111.561	1.745. TOTAL DRIVIN
	Jay Chifford, RICC 86	88. Brian Tennyson	106,046	1. Bruce Lietzke, 53	. 2, Ted 1
	Joey Ryan, Wannamoisett 86	89. Jack Nicklaus 90. Ronnie Black	105,347	Schulz, 68, 3, Fulton Alle Tom Purtzer and Fuzzy Zi
	Karl Augenstein, Potowomut 87 David Forney, unattached 87	91 Kek Triplett	102,442	6. Kenny Perry, 81. 7, .	Jeff Mag-
•	Harold Najarian, Valley 87	92. Duffy Waldorf 93. Brad Faxon	102.362	gert, 82. 8. Paul Azinger, EAGLE LEADER
	John Grasso, Quidnessett 87 Joseph Dias, Wanumetonomy 87	94. Dave Barr	97,221	1. John Huston, 12.	2. Andy
	Dr Kenneth Rudman Vally 87	95: Lee Janzen 96: Peria Parsons	96,439 95,950	Bean, 11. 3 (tel), Ed (and Notan Hardla, 9	Cougherty 13
			2000

.₩ .₩ .#5.

Sports/Classified

Olympics	3
Baseball	4-5
Local sports	5
Scoreboard ·	6
Golf	8
WEATHER	18

MVP Ripken is hit of the evening for A.L.

TORONTO — In the year of the streak, the American League kept its going because of the man chasing baseball's ultimate streak.

ing basebal's ultimate streak.

Cal Ripken, basebal's Mr. Consistency, played home-run derby for the second straight day, and-twas enough for the Americans to win 4-2 last night for their fourth straight All-Star game victory. It was the latest feat for the Baltimore shortstop, who hasn't missed a game in almost 10 years and is closing in on Low Gehrig's ironman record. But it also was just another day at the office. "That's the good thing about having a good first half and a good All-Star game. Everyone lets the

'take-a-day off line' die right now," Ripken said, "It seems like about the same time last year, I about the same time last year, I was thinking my career was on the downhill side. It seems like a lot of things have happened since then."

Ripken, just four years away from Gehrig's mark of 2,130 consecutive games, put the American shead with a three-run homer in the third inning. Then, for the third inning. Then, for the third consecutive year, manager Tony La Russa relied on his short relievers.

"It was a perfect match," La Russa said. "A great player having a great first half. So what does he do? He does great things."

Turn to ALL-STARS, Page D-4

Mystique strikes out in today's game

Once, the names came at him varpped in myth and mystique. Once, the All-Star Game was more than just a collection of the biggest names in the game. It was a night when everything seemed larger than life, a night when the baseball cards of his youth came to life. Williams. Mantle. Mays. Snyoer. Mustal. rie had come of age in the late '50s, when baseball players seemed to walk with kings. The All-Star Game was one of the few times he actually got a chance to see the players he usually only read about. The All-Star game was baseball's version of Christmas morning.

REYNOLDS

No more. Now the All-Star Game is just

Now the All-Star Game is just another exhibition game. Part of that, he supposes, is that he is in his 40s now, and no doubt has lost some of his capacity for wonder. He also knows All-Star games always are a letdown, no matter what the sport. The players don't care. Most of them play only a couple of linnings. He has also come to know that no

Turn to REYNOLDS, Page D-4

Quigley agog at Tour lifestyle

BILL PARRILLO

SUTTON, Mass. — The wide-eyed rookie was getting the grand tour. "See these phones?" Brad Faxon

"See these phones?" Brad Faxon was saying to Brett Quigley as the walked through the player's clubhouse at Pleasant Valley Country Club. "Those phones are free. All those the world." "Anywhere in the world." "Anywhere?" Brett Quigley asked, amazed at such a thing. "Anywhere," said Faxon. Quigley punched some numbers on the touch tone phone. Who was he calling? A girlfriend vacationing in Rome, perhaps? Or maybe a college buddy playing the Asian Tour in Bangkok? A pal touring the southern coast of France? He put the receiver to his ear. "Hello, Ma?" he said, speaking to Turn to PARRILLO, Page D-8

Turn to PARRILLO, Page D-8

BLAST OFF: Rod Butcher of Potowomut fires out of a sand trap on the eighth hole of his home course yesterday in R.I. Amateur.

Sheehan, Wright Amateur medalists

By KEVIN McNAMARA
Journal-Bulletts Sports Writer
WARWICK — The first two days of warmups are out of the way in the Rhode Island Amateur. Now the fun begins.
Pat Sheehan and Don Wright kept up their strong play and tied for medalist honors with a two-day total of 143. Rhode Island Country Club's Jim Stallman was a shot back at 144.

total of 143. Rhote island County Club's Jim Stallman was a shot back at 144.

While winning the medal is a great achievement, it means nothing when match play starts this morning at Potowomut Golf Club. The first two days simply serve to cut the field down to the top 32 finishers. Now the head-to-head matches that highlight the state amateur tourney take center stage.

"You never know with match play because anyone can get hot and shut you out," Sheehan said. "I like match play. I'm looking forward to it."

it."

If Sheehan and Wright can duplicate the hot shooting they flashed over the last two days, they will be tough to beat. The pair played in the same threesome (with Marc St. Martin, another match play qualifier) and pushed each other to the top

Turn to AMATEUR, Page D-8

Jankovich promises to hold financial line

By ED DUCKWORTH

By ED DUCKWORTH
Journal-Bubtlet Sports Writer FOXBORO, Mass. — Sam Jankovich said he would have preferred to announce that offensive tackle Pat Harlow, running back Leonard Russell and half a dozen other rookies had agreed to join the Patriots on the eve of training camp.
But that wasn't in the cards, so instead, Jankovich confirmed again yesterday his intention to hold the financial line where the Patriots' draft choices are concerned.
"The offers were made are fain and good," said the team's chief executive officer. "We have no intention of moving off them. When 3:30 Thursday comes, we'll start camp with or without the people we drafted."
Jankovich said the decision to Jankovich said the decision to ankovich said the decision to adopt a take-it-or-leave-it stance had been arrived at after "several months" of discussions involving himself, owner Victor Kiam, coach Dick MacPherson and the front-office staff.

"The feeling was this organization has to be operated on a fair-but-firm basis," said Jankovich. "That's why we've substituted individual incentives for team bonuses, and it's also why we're going to stand firm on our offers."

Although he declined to be specific, Jankovich reported the Pats had made "some progress" toward reaching agreements with "a few" of the 14 unsigned rookies.

"The offers we've made are the offers that will be there for as long as it takes," he said. "The packages we've offered aren't going to go higher."

higher."

The Pats' boss said rookies who fail to report will be "significantly lessening their chances of playing and, at the same time, increasing their chances of being injured if they start later."

Jankovich indicated it was un-likely that Harlow and Russell, the Pats' first-round picks, would be un-der-contract-when-camp-opens at-Bryant College in Smithfield. Turn to PATRIOTS, Page D-3

HARD HITTER: No. 1 seed Peter Lundgren of Sweden serves up a defeat to Jimmy Brown of Largo. Fla

Kriek's comeback picking up steam

By MIKE SZOSTAK

By MIKE SZOSTAK
Journal-Bublini Sports Writer
NEWPORT — After two operations and 18 months off the professional tennis tour, Johan Krick is eager to see if he has retained any of the talent that made him a Top 20 player for almost seven years and a 14-time champion.
So he entered the Miller Lite Hall of Fame Championships, an event he won 10 vegra see.

of Fame Championships, an event he won 10 years ago.
Yesterday, during his 6-2, 6-4 first-round bitz of qualifier Bret Garnett. Krick might as well have beed playing in a time warp, for he looked more like a 23-year-old agring for the Top 10 than a 3-year-old agring for the Top 100. He hit hig serves, volleyed crisp winners and covered the court like an alley cut.

cat.
"I think I played extremely well "I think I played extremely well adoay," Krek said after his 5-min-ute workout on the Newport Cas-no's stadium court. "(It was) one of the few matches in two years I played that I was loose. I was ready to play and I played well. "I'm as fit if not fitter than I was five years ago. I'm just trying to get the mental aspect of it back," Kriek said.

said.

Kriek's game deteriorated along with his right arm in 1989. He underwent shoulder surgery after a first-round loss at the 1989 U.S.

Open.
Last year wasn't much better. He injured his right elbow attempting a comeback at the Lipton International in March. Three subsequent comeback bids also failed. Kriek vis-ited 10 different specialists who of-fered 10 different explanations for the pain in his elbow.

fered 10 different explanations for the pain in his elbow.
Finally, last September, after extensive research on his own, Kriekcame across Dr. Steven Schwarzod White Plains, N.Y., who performed surgery on Kriek's elbow and told him to forget about playing tensis for six months.

During recovery and rehabilitation, Kriek became a fitness freak, the climbed stair machines.

"Let the cast simmer from all the sweat," he said, chuckling.

Kriek's began practicing last March and when to Europe to attend to the sweat, which was to be a fine to be a fine of the search of the

"Now I'm back in the States I'm working hard and I'm getting closer to where I feel like I can start be-coming a contender again in the smaller-tournaments and work my way up.

Turn to KRIEK, Page D-2

Briefly SCORFROARD ALL-STAR GAME: PAGES D-1, D-4

Call Journal Line at 277-7777. Using a touch-tone telephone, enter today's access code 1715 and then one of the following category codes:

AL biseball 1;3611 NL biseball 3612 IgnnitTLeague 3613 Igternat I League 3613

$189_{mo.} METRO 58 MPG. New '91 GEO 5-Speed, Stereo, Rear Defogger, Power Brakes, Rear Wiper/ Washer, #20294-1, COM $179_{mo.}

EXAMPLE: METRO, 36 mo. closed end lease = $5444 lotal with NO MONEY DOWN. First payment & equal refundable security dep. req. $2535 purchase option, 45,000 FREE miles. 10c/ml. excess. Taxes, Icense & registration lees not inct.

333 Niantic Avenue, off Route 10 (Exit 16 off 95) Providence Telephone 944-2500

Parrillo

Continued from Page D-1

Continued from Page D-1 his mother, Geneva, back home in Barrington. "This is Brett. I'm call-ing from the locker room at Pleas-ant Valley. Boy, this is really some-thing." Faxon sighed and then shook his Faxor sighed and then shook his head in amusement.

"What's that?" Brett Quigley asked his mother. He covered the mouthpiece.

"You know what she just asked me?" he said to Faxon. "She wantdo know if I got my tee shot airborne on the first hole?"

"Aww. Ma." said Quigley. "It's not that bad."

But mon knows. These are dir.

borne on the first hole?

"Aww, Ma," said Quigley, "It's not that bad."

But mom knows. These are dizzying days for Brett Quigley, age 21, pro golfe_r&q a month, now walking around a pro locker room, getting ready to folay in his first real, honest-to-foodness PGA tour cvent. Sure, he Rifew a little something about what to expect. He used to caddy for his Uncle Dana at Pleasant Valley and Hartford. And fie has played countless rounds with Faxon and Billy Andrade, now established touring pros.

Still, this was different. This was Strett Quigley, Player. His name was on a locker — right next to Brad Bryant's locker and across, from Ronnie Black and Barry Jaeckel. And weren't they those people the same people he has been watching play on television for as long as he can remember?

"I know! Tim going to be nervous Thursday (opening day)" said Quigley. "But once I get going. I'm sure I'll be okay. I mean, I can't look at all the names and say to myself 'Hey, what am I doing here?' There's going to be a little of that anyway, but you have to believe in yourself."

He is the kid with the good golf-ing bloodlines. His Uncle Dana, the former tour pro, will also be playing in the PV Classic. His father, Paul, former state amateur champ, is gunning for another state tillethis very week.

After four years at South Carolina, Brett Quigley turned pro a month ago. In his very first tournament, and the state of the thinking about today. About the whole week."

So there he was yesterday. First, he played a practice round with Uncle Dana and Faxon. Three generations of Barrington golfers playing in the same threesome getting ready to play in the same PGA tournament. Had to be a Rhode Island first. He learned where to hit the ball, where no to hit the ball, where no take the chance. He learned club selection. At the par-three 16th, 200 yards into the wind, he pulled out a four-iron. "Hit a three," said Uncle Dana. "I can make it with a four," said

Ryder Cup team selection may be in cards for Andrade

*  THE PHOVIDENCE JOOR INCOME COLLETIN

may be in cards for Andrade

SUTTON, Mass. — If he continues to play well for the next month or so, Billy Andrade of Bristol could become one of two "wild card" selections to the United States Ryder Cup team.

"We're already considering him," said Dave Stockton, captain of the 12-man U.S. team which will meet Europe in their biennial match Sept. 26-29 at Kiawah Island, S.C. "Ideally, we're going to be looking for the hottest player coming out of the summer and we'll probably give the other spot to a veteran. If Billy were to win another tournament ..."

The first 10 players to the U.S. team will be selected straight from a point-standing list based on weekly victories, victories in majors, high finishes, etc., etc. Right now, the list reads this way;
Corey Pavin, Lanny Wadkins, Fred Couples,
Steve Pate, Hale Irwin, Davis Love, Payne Stewart, Paul Azinger, Mike Hurlburt and Craig Stadier. AfFaul Azinger, Mike Hurlburt and Craig Stadier. AfIt looks as if we'r already going to have enough veterans on the cas opposed to other years when we had to add one or two," said cas of the year. The believer in petcher year whe had to add one or two," said cas of the year was looking at Rocco Mediate but he has faded. Now it's sat Billy."

Andrade surged to prominence with his back-to-back victories at the Kemper Open and the Buick-West-fester Classic. However, he kemper Open and the

of the year, I was snowing at notes orecutate out the use indeed, I was to a just Billy."

Andrade surged to prominence with his back-to-back victories at the Kemper Open and the Buick-Westchester Classic. However, because of some cierical mixup, he had not signed the proper forms to become eligible for the Ryder Cup list so he has received no credit for his victories. Had he been awarded the points, he still would not have been among the top 10.

In any case, Andre's only chance for this year would be as a wild-card pick. And he's definitely interested.

"It's the highest team honor a pro golfer can get," Andrade was saying yesterfay at Pleasant Valley Country Club, prior to a practice round for this week's New England Classic.

BILL PARRILLO

Brett.
"No, a three is better," said

"No, a three is better, same Dana.
"Watch," said Brett.
He hit the four-iron. The wind stopped the ball in midflight and dropped it into a front bunker.
"Uh," said Brett, "I should have him the tour. They went up for some lunch, a free spread of everything from chicken and rice to ham and cheese and tuna. And salads of all kinds.

"It's a great life, no question about that," Brett Quigley was saying, "But I'm not going to put any pressure on myself this week. I want to enjoy this as much as I can."

Bay State's Wood takes 1st-day lead Louise Billy, Passaconaway, N. H. Anne Marie Tobin, Bellevue, Ma. Jean Bons, Passaconaway, N.H. Charlone Petrone, Ustin.

By BUD BARKER

Journal-Bulletia Sports Writer
NORTH KINGSTOWN — Rhode Island golfers played the perfect hosts in the opening round of the New England Women's Golf Association Championship at Quidnessett Country Club yesterday by letting the visitors win.

the visitors win.

Massachusett's Carri Wood ran off the with the first-day lead. The Mississipp State University sophomore took medalist honors with a one-over-par 73 in a field of 101.
Defending. New England titlist
Ann Marie Tobin, unhappy with her putting game, shot a 38 on the back into to finish six strokes back of Wood, at 79.
Current. Rhode. Island. chamn.

Wood, at 79.

Current Rhode Island champ Donna Warner, saying she "made some bad shots, and didn't play well," carded an 83.

Wood, the top player on her college team that finished tied for eighth place in the recent NCAA national tournament, wasn't overly impressed with her performance yesterday.

impressed with her performance yesterday.
"I got it going on the back side," said the 20-year-old Cape Cod resident. "My driver cost me four or five shots, but I had only 30 putts, including a birdle on 16. You have to like that."

Playing in only her third NEWGA — she finished sixth two years ago — Wood had four birdies Amateur

Continued from Page D-1

N.E. WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

yesterday.

And Wood needed all of them to stay in front Abigail Vernon — an other Bay Stater who brought home a 74 — and weteran Barbara Young, the current Connecticut state champion and former NEWGA winner in 1986. Young fired a 75.

Vernon had a big round, playing the back nine first, until she three-putted both 17 and 18. "That wasn't too much fung." she admitted. Vernon recouped with three birdies, and hit 14 greens in regulation. Brode Island's 28-player contingent, which is trying to snap an 11-year string without a New England tile, was led by long-ball hitting Lisa Griffin.

Griffin, who plays out of Misquamieut, was five strokes off the pace at 78, followed by Valley's Charlene Petrone, who fired a 79.

"I had a few bad chip shots, but I made some nice long putts. I'm hanging in there," Petrone said.

made some nice long putts. I'm hanging in there," Petrone said. Play resumes today at 8 a.m.

Griffin, Misquamicut	37-41-78
na Harrity, Abeniague, N. H.	39-38-77
non McInemey, Charles River, Ma.	39-37 76
mara Young, Aspetuk Valley, Ct.	38-37 - 75
gail Vernon, The Country Outs, Ma.	38-36 74
am Wood, Cranberry Valley, Ma.	38-35 - 73

business, Seasy, Ni. 33,38—73 d 1—78

bounced back from opening day 79s by shooting 72 and making the cut by three shots. The biggest jump was made by loey lacifolano of Metacomet who shot a 73 yesterday, just enough to overcome an 81 and make the cut.

There are a number of strong players left to battle in match play-rotowomuts Jeff Giguere, 1990 club champion, shot a 70 yesterday and says he's ready for a run.

"I'm hoping for the home-course advantage for take effect," he said. "Hopefully I'm hitting my form right now."

Dr. George Pirie, 1990 tillist, shot a 73 and is always a threat, as are other past champions Paul Quigley and St. Martin.

Many would not be surprised to see Sheehan and Butcher, both entering their senior year in college, be major forces the rest of the week. Some believe the youngsters have the same type of talent as Brad Faxon and Billy Andrade, who both won the Amateur title in their college years.

"We call them 'The Kids' when won the Amateur title in their college years.

"We call them 'The Kids' when we play with them but they win a lot more than they lose," Wright said. "Age doesn't mean anything with them."

71-72 - 143
72-71 - 143
72-71 - 143
72-72 - 144
70-75 - 145
76-71 - 145
76-71 - 146
71-75 - 146
71-75 - 146
71-75 - 146
72-75 - 147
72-76 - 148
75-73 - 148
74-75 - 149
74-75 - 150
76-74 - 150

30-30 - 79
41-38 - 79
19-40 - 79
19-40 - 79
19-40 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79
19-41 - 79 All though a make change in an inMarket Change in the Bestont Ma.
Shaken Chairnes in the Chrande Ma.
Permy Lock Market Hell Ma.
And Chairnes The Chrande Ma.
Permy Lock Market Hell Ma.
And Chairnes The John Market Hell Ma.
And Chairnes The John Market Links of the Chairnes RCG.
Julie Demon Market Ma.
And Scholm North Helm Rd.
And Scholm North Helm Rd.
Julie Demon RCG.
Julie RCG.
Juli Dense Armstrong, AppreMart Losches Krisbrae
Livel Goldrino, Paneluciaet
Livel Goldrino, Paneluciaet
Den Goorge PreStaller
Den Goorge PreValley
Steve Trans Walmanneson
Steve Cole. Valley
Berne MCCrist. Triggs
Obules Hyers. Wanumeson
Kyle Pholips. Gener Valley
Grig Richard. Krisbrae
James Byrger
Jahr O Berne Constean
Male McCormox, Triggs
Jahr O Berne, Constean
M.S. Hygan, Triggs
Joney Lookanon, Metacome
Brian Dowers, Canaston
Falled 1:

Fall

74-77-151 75-76-151 75-76-151 78-73-151 76-75-151 79-72-151 79-72-151 79-72-151 78-74-152 78-74-152 78-74-152 78-75-153 78-75-153 78-75-153 78-75-153 Alb. Figgal. Figgs
Alb. Figgal. Figgs
Alb. Figgal. Figgs
Even Deven Constant
Failed to g
Stere Sampsion. Cestasood
Chro Battel. Constant
Chro Battel. Constant
Chro Battel. Constant
Figg.
Dan Naparan. Valey
Jos Sacchan S. Meteomet
Tad Constant, Trogs
Dan Naparan. Valey
Jos Sacchan S. Meteomet
Tad Constant, Trogs
Dan Naparan. Valey
Jos Sacchan S. Meteomet
Math Harmyson, Womania,
Math Bernaru, Womania
Math Harmyson, Womania
Math Harmyson, Womania
Math Harmyson, Womania
Math Lombaro, Constant
Norman Laper. Trogs
Contro Minacos. Constant
Norman Laper. Trogs
Contro Minacos. Constant
Norman Laper. Trogs
On Chrosh
Contro Minacos. Constant
Control Minacos.
Co 77.78—155
87.73—155
87.73—155
87.73—155
80.73—155
80.73—155
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—156
80.74—

Seen Branch Mercolc M.

Seen Branch Mercolc M.

Britter Calloner, Nathenich Ca.

Britter Calloner, Nathenich Ca.

Britter Calloner, Nathenich Ca.

Mare Brown Ferrer, Nathenich Ca.

Mare Brown Ferrer, Bernstein C. H.

Mann Brown Ferrer, Bernstein C. H.

Sonia Dady, Weimann, C. C.

Jacke G. Gall, Microse Ma.

Jack Deers, Mischann M.

Jack Deers, 46-44 - 90
46-44 - 90
46-44 - 90
46-44 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90
46-45 - 90

Jahr Loriey Wareumoiest
Socii Clous Power
Facilit Namon, Valey
Facilit N

— Marc St. Marin vs. Mart Luches; 8.48.— Rod. Bottler vs. James Byrge; 856.— Tom Gord vs. Sene Trave.

9.04.— Don Weight vs. Jacy bootlang; 9.12.— Richard Sweeth vs. Berne McCreek; 9.20.— Jelf Gyener vs. Jac Forgint; 9.28.— Bit Cancred vs. Don Cegan; 9.36.— Jan Szalman vs. Mae McCremick; 9.24.— John Down vs. Stepe Cele; 95.2.— Doug Robrison vs. John O'Brin, A. J. 1000.— Paul Quelyfvs. Kie Phelos.

with Inferm."

RISUATS VESTERDAY
Pat Deaths, Witochard Genes
7
Pat Deaths, Witochard Genes
7
Pat Deaths, Witochard Genes
7
Pat State Processor
7
Pat State Processor
7
Pat State Processor
7
Pat Gapter Rotter
7
Pat Gapter
7
Pat Gapter Rotter
7
Pat Ga

Anthony Issa, Wanumel Rick Arrigh, Cranston Jack Bertherman, Meta; Pau Perarca, Ouchesse Joe Curran, Lincoln Joey Ryan, Wannamou-

Sports

Golf Baseball Scoreboard NATION/WORLD NEWS

Chance increases for college football playoff

Journal-Bulletia Sports Writer
PROVIDENCE — The Big East Conference got a shot in the arm yesterday with an anmouncement of an alliance that increases prospects for a national championship football matchup between the teams ranked No.
land No. 2.

l and No. 2.

Commissioner Mike Tranghese said yesterday that the new alliance "guarantees" that the Big East football champion, beginning in 1993, will get "a major bowl berth that will pay a minimum of three million dollars."

The alliance also could quiet the annual debate over a possible playoff system that becomes loudest when the two top-ranked teams play in different bowl games. That has happened the past two seasons.

Officials from four bowls, The Big East,

Officials from four bowls. The Big East, Notre Dame and the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) have agreed on an alliance designed to increase prospects for a national championship matchup between the teams ranked No. 1 and No. 2.

nent of the Fiesta Bowl's

"I can't say why we selected the Fiesta," said Tranghese. "There really wasn't one standout reason. We didn't take a vote. It was more of a consensus. I, myself_like the selection to join the Cotton, Orange and Sugar Bowl New Year's Day games was made yesterday.

The Fiesta Bowl, housed in Tempe, Ariz, was chosen by the alliance over its closest rival, the Citrus Bowl, although representatives from the Blockbuster, Gator and Holiday bowls also guade strong presentations.

"I can't say why we selected the Fiesta," and Finding the Commission of the Commiss

"Whenever the opportunity exits for No. 1 to play No. 2, we're committed to playing," said Tranghese. "It is as close as we can come to a national championship playoff without forsaking the bowl system."

The length of the Fiesta Bow fagreement has not been finalized, but it is expected to be more than three years. Before the first Bowl could be added to the mix, it had to firm up its contractual agreement with NBC. The alliance still hasn't decided which national poll. — USA Today, 4P or UP! — will decide the final rankings. Bowl pairings

Turn to BOWLS, Page C-5

Faxon has become the 'other' guy

SUTTON, Mass. — The thing that still bothers litted Faxon about that putt two years ago was that it never had a chance. Never started out to the right as he thought it would. Never broke back slightly to the left. Never looked as if it might fall into the company of the left of the little with the little will be a found to the left hever he was the little will be a found to the left he will be all into the control of the left he will be a found to the left he w cup. Never even made a run at it. "It wouldn't have been so bad if the ball had lipped out or some-thing." Faxon was saying about the 12-footer he had for a birdle on the 12-footer he had for a birdle on the 18th green on a Sunday two years ago at Pleasant Valley Country Club. "Il mean, the people couldn't even ooh and aah. The ball just rolled straight by the hole." If he had made the putt, Brad Faxon of Barrington would have gone into a sudden-death playoff have happened after that. Maybe he would have won the playoff, the year's exemption, a trip to the Masters, the whole nine yards. Alas, the putt never moved an inch from a straight line. The break Faxon saw in the green was never there. The ball rolled so straight past the cup that no one even had a past the cup that no one even had a chance to get excited. It was as if he had walked up to the plate, bases loaded, two outs, ninth in-ning, team down by three runs, and fouled out to the catcher. Faxon finished one stroke out. Thus far, that has been his best chance on the big tour. He has had a couple of second-place finishes at the Shearson-Lehman-Hutton in San Diego: and a year ago be was a

RIII PARRILLO

San Diego; and a year ago he was a close third when the rains short-ened Jack Nicklaus' tournament at Muirfield Village.

But close calls are just that and nothing more and Faxon is back at Pleasant Valley again, ready to fi-nally win one. He can feel it. Of course, he has felt that way before, too.

"I'm this close," he says, holding his thumb and forefinger inches

Turn to PARRILLO, Page C-2

ANXIOUS: Chris Sheehan bites his towel while helping his brother. Patrick, line up a difficult putt on the ninth hole yesterday at the Rhode Island Amaleur tournament at Potowomut Golf Club.

Lucchesi surprises St. Martin in R.I. Amateur

By KEVIN McNAMARA

WARWICK — Matt Lucchesi stood on the first tee at Potowo-mut Golf Club and quickly learned what he was up against in yester-day's Rhode Island Amateur tour

Public address announcer Joe Sprague first introduced Lucche-Sprague first introduced Lucchesit's opponent, Marc St. Martin. Sprague listed the various accomplishments that have firmly entrenched St. Martin's name among the golfing elite in the state. Two-time winner of the Amateur, former Rnode Islamu Open etc.

When Sprague introduced Lucchesi, he simply said, "Matt Lucchesi, Kirkbrae."
"That sort of put the match into perspective," said the underdog Lucchesi, all "Jeyear-old who grew up caddying at Kirkbrae, the same course that S. Martin plays out of. "I felt pretty nervous, that's for sure."

While that nervousness stayed

While that nervousness stayed with him right until the final shots of the match. Lucches regained enough composure to hold off a late charge and shock St. Martin in a match that lasted 20 holes. Lucchesi's victory was the only major upset on the first day of match play in the Rhode Island Amateur. The final eight players continue play today at 8 a.m. Half of the remaining field acconnections to Potowomut. Don Wright, Rod Butcher and Mike Ryan are all members and Pat Sheehan works at the club. Rhode Martin and Paul Cujlety are also gaill ajvet. Triggs' Mike McCormick founds out the remaining eight.

The day was dominated by mismatches. Only the Lucchesi-St.

Turn to AMATEUR, Page C-2

Marching along

Veteran Connecticut golfer Barbara Young takes a three-stroke lead into today's final round of the 35th annual New Eng-land Women's Golf Championship at Ouidnessett Country Club in North Kingstown. "When my irons are good. I'm going to play well." she says. Story, Page C-2.

Sordid chapter closed; goodby, good riddance to Mowatt

SMITHFIELD — Paraphrasing another great Patriot whose inter-est in football goes back to his days at Whittier College — we won't have Zeke Mowatt to kick around have Zeke Mowatt to kick around any more.

What a shame. I was so looking a sideline dance routine with the new New England Patriots chereleaders to the sounds of "Can't Touch This."
The only question following Mowart's release this week is not why but rather what took so long. In the sorry history of football's most foolish franchise, Zeke rates, his own sordid chapter. Mowatt was to the Patriots what Donna Rice was to Gary Hart. He ranks right up there with Ted Kennedy and John Sununu as New England embarrassments.

HAA DONALDSON

Mowatt proved to be much more than an embarrassment to the Patriots. He was a detriment. Never has a Patriots player done so little good on the field, and so much harm off it. The Patriots were not expected

The Patriots were not expected to have a good season last year. But neither were they expected to have their worst year-ever. However, the Pats, who were shy on talent but hardly shy when it came to mistreating women in their locker room, never recovered from the disastrous effects of the now-infamous Lisa Olson incident. It was the day following what proved to be the Patriots' only victory of the season that Mowatt, Robert Perryman and Michael Timpson engaged in what NEL

Timpson engaged in what NFL

Hope springs eternal as Patriots open training camp

By ED DUCKWORTH

Journal Bulletin Sports Witter SMITHFIELD — There will be on speeches, no fireworks, no marching bands to signal the start of the New England Patriots' training camp this afternoon at Bryant College.

The circus sideshows that have son says.

"We're beginning a new era from scratch, at the bottom of the heap," said the Pats' new coach,
"Obviously, there's a lot of room for improvement and not a lot of time to see it happen."

Even so, MacPherson, who at 60 and after 10 successful seasons at Syracuse University will be making his debut as a head coach in the NET sounds genuinely optimistic ing his debut as a head coach in the NFL, sounds genuinely optimistic about the Pats.

The Maine native and former The Maine native and former defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos believes his staff needs only to have the Pats concentrating on football instead of contract negotiations, women sports writers, barroom brawls or any other distractions.

"I'm convinced, and so are the ayers, that this is no 1-15 team," id MacPherson. "No way can we Turn to PATRIOTS, Page C-5

Briefly

SCOREBOARD

TRIPLE A ALL-STAR GAME: PAGE C-4

TOPS ON TV TODAY

BASEBALL: 8 p.m. 6 38 Boston-Minnesota

For around the clock sports news, call Journal Line at 277-7777, Using a touch-tone telephone, enter today's access code 5043 and then one of the

ving category codes:

Leave Clark alone; Sox pitchers are to blame By ART MARTONE Assistant Sports Editor

Assistant Sports Editor
When people begin plotting the Red Sox' road to recovery, the remedies all seemed to invoive the starting lineup. Who should play. Who should sit. Who should bat where.
Who should't bat where.

wno snould bar where.
Forget all that.
The problem is pitching.
Shaky pitching.— specifically, shaky starting pitching.— is what's gotten, the Red Sox into this fine mess.

otten the Red Sox into this fine ess.
The offense, though not great.

On May 12, which was TedWilliams Day at Fenway Park, they has been good enough to win. Good-enough to win, that is, with decent pitching. So far, that's what's been lacking.

Don't buy it? Check the numbers.
Conviceinethy enough, the first half of, the season split itself into-two distinct movements.

*On May 11, the Sox hit their high-water mark of the season at nine games over 500 (15-9). They were in first place, two games ahead.

has been good enough to win. Good enough to win, that is, with decent pitching. So far, that's what's been lacking. Don't buy it? Check the numbers. Convieniently enough, the first best of the season solit itself into

The 53-game skid has had the angry populace screaming for Jack Clark's scalp, pleading for Mo Vaughn's promotion, furning that Tom Brunlansky was re-signed, and wailing over the fact that Mike. Marshall is here when Phil Plantier

Boston Red Sox (Greg Harris, 5-6, 4-52) at Min-nesota Twins (Kewn Ta-pani, 5-7, 3,14) B 8 p.m. (§) 38 WPRO. WER! WSAR Radio WER! WSAR Radio their last 10 games at the Abstrodome, dating back to 1989

Tonight

87-82 — 169 89-80 — 169 88-82 — 170 88-84 — 172 90-82 — 172 90-82 — 173 86-87 — 173 86-87 — 173 86-81 — 174 90-83 — 173 86-88 — 174 93-81 — 174 93-81 — 174 93-81 — 176 85-92 — 177 88-92 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177 88-99 — 177

Young charges past field

By BUD BARKER
Journal-Budleth Sports Writer
NORTH KINGSTOWN — Seems like old times for Barbara Young.
The veteran Connecticut golfer charged to the front yesterday at Journal-Budleth State and Journal of the Country Club, Laking a three-stroke lead into today's final round of the 35th annual New England Women's Golf Championship.
With the same steady game that kept her close on opening day Tuesday, Young, a senior tournament player, passed her closest rivals with a one-over par 73 to take a nifty two-day total 148 into the clubhouse.
Journal of the State of the State day Massachusetts leaders Carriday Keeping her tee shots in the middle of the fairway and landing on the plush Quidnessett greens in regulation most of the time. "When my irons are good, I'm going to play well," she said.
Her nine-iron was on target on the 130-yard over water par-3 fifth hole. Young's shot checked bp less than five feet from the pin and she drilled the putt for a birdie. She said he bird was important because she had bogeys on a couple of holes later. "The birdle got my confidence up. If I had missed it I would have:
Neither Woods, the tournament medalist out of Cranberry Valley Country Club, nor Vernon played poorly. They just didn't keep up the pace they set for themselves Tuesday when they fired a 73 and 74 respectively.
Missach turned in 28 yes.

day when they fired a 73 and 74 respectively.
Mississippi State University's No. player, Wood turned in a 78 yesterday that included a triple-bogey on third hole, a par-5, 497-yarder. Yermon, who plays out of The Country Ciub, lied Wood for the second spot, at 151, turning in a 39-38, 77. Dana Harrity, from Abena-qui Country Club in New Hampshire, had the second-best round of the day, a 74, to move four strokes off Young's pace.

Amateur Continued from Page C-1

Martin match lasted more than 18

30% OFF

STYLES WILL VARY BY STORE LIMITED QUANTITIES NO RAINCHECKS

N.E. WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Rhode Island still had two players in the top 10 heading into the final day of play. Usa Griffin, out of Misquamicut, shaved a stroke off her opening day round of 78, to stay in contention at 155, one chot ahead of last year's NEWGA champion, Massachusett's Anne Marie Tobia, of Bellevue Country Club. "I just need to play great (today)," Griffin said.

said. With a pair of 39s, veteran Julie Greene who along with Joanne Carner is the only two-time New England champion (1971 and 78), moved into the top 10, by carding a 78, while Charlene Petrone, of Valley, dropped out, with a tough day, 88

lay continues today w	ith the to cheduled to begin fro	m the fir
at 9:40 a.m.	in the m at 5.40 a.m.
RESULTS YESTERDA
era Young, Aspetuck Valley, Conn	75-73-1
Wood, Cranberry Valley, Mass.	73-78-1
al Vernon, The C.C., Mass.	74-771
Hamity, Abenaqui, N.H.	77-75-1
inffin, Misquarnicut	78-77-1
in McInerney, Charles R., Mass.	76-79-1
Mane Tobin, Believue, Ma	79-77-1
ly-Donofno, Yale Club, Conn.	82-75-1
Greene RICC	81-78-1
n Chairners, The Orchards, Mass.	80-80-1
Richardson, Haverhill, Mass	83-77-1
e Galigan, Allendale, Mass.	82-79-1
Locke, Marshfield, Mass.	81-81-1
a Warner, Wanumetonomy	83-80-1
Billy, Passaconaway, N.H.	78-85-1
Callaghan, Point Judith	81-82-1
lagle, Willimantic, Conn.	81-82-1
Lee O'Leary, Oak Hill, Mass.	82-81-1
e Richards, Weston, Mass.	82-81-1
Tombs, Manchester, N.H.	82-82-1
ra Dion, Nashua, N.H.	82-82-1
a Dolan, Ridgewood, Conn.	85-79-1
rickson, Hanover, N.H.	86-78-1
Golden, Allendale, Mass.	84-81-1
oy, Marshfield, Mass.	86-79-1
Reynolds, Copiey, Vt.	87-78-1
insen, Falmouth, Maine	84-82-1
ionis, Passaconaway, N.H.	79-88-1
ne Petrone, Valley	79-88-1
Dorthe, New Bedford, Mass.	79-88-1
en Vinson, Walpole, Mass.	82-85-1
ivers, North Conway, N.H.	87-81-1

"I really believed I could do it after a while," he said. "That's the key."

Lucchesi said he had a tough time coming down from the win and took a few holes before he focused against Joe Acclardo, a 4 and 2 winner against MB. Hogan in the morning round. He finally settled down and went on to a 4 and 2 winner against Mb. Hogan in the morning round. He finally settled down and went on to a 4 and 2 winner trinials with wins over Jim Biogram and Tom Goryl.

Butcher romped into the quarter finals with wins over Jim Biogram and Tom Goryl.

Tom Goryl.

Tom Goryl.

Tom Goryl.

She ham swin ended three straight years of losses to Pirte, including one in the 1989 finals.

"Pat's swinging better than he ever has," Pirte said. "He's a seasoned player with a good, solid game."

Sheehan moves on to play Mike

"I'd rather not play Pat now but that's the way it breaks." Ryan said. "We play matches against each oth-er all the time so it'll be like just an-other Wednesday or Friday night."

er all the time so it?! be like ju other Wednesday or Friday nig NOUNO 02 32 RSUATE PAT Seventand if Bran Owers. 1 up. D. George Pive Get. John Gooden G. and S. Hall Seventand George Pive Get. John Gooden G. and S. Mart Lucches de Mars St. Marin. 20 holes. Not States etc. John Accordo det M.B. Hogan, 4 and 2. Mart Lucches de Mars St. Marin. 20 holes. Roll States etc. John Springer, 5 and 4. The Common Com

25%

Martin match lasted more than 18 holes.

Lucchesi, a 1889 Cumberland High grad who now plays at Middle Tennessee, State, jumped out to a three-hole lead after nine.

"Mare bogeyed the first hole and that helped a 10t," he said." I just told myself that he's human and can make mistakes like anyone else. I just wanted to make pars. I figured if Marc could beat me with birdles he deserved it."

St. Martin didn't fold, birdleing the 13th and 15th and when Luchesi hit his approach shot over the green on 17, the match was tied."

Lucchesi admitted his nervousness, especially when he sank a 10-foct putt on 18 to force extra holes. "I was so pumped up it was almost tough to breathe." game."

Sheehan moves on to play Mike Ryan (8 a.m.) in a match that will get many golf fans out of bed early. Both regularly play each other in weekly leagues at Potowomut and each is a candidate to take the title. Both players parred the first ex-tra hole and when St. Martin 3-put-ted the next hole, Lucchesi made his par and advanced to the afternoon matches. SALE ENDS SUNDAY JULY 14, 1991 LY SIZZLER Hardware. Made easy. SECECTED 3 RUBBERMAID & IGLOO COOLERS & JUGS IN STOCK STYLES WILL VARY BY STORE
LIMITED QUANTITIES
NO RAINCHECKS 30% OFF LOW VOLTAGE OUTDOOR LIGHT SETS

STYLES WILL VARY BY STORE
 LIMITED QUANTITIES
 NO RAINCHECKS
 REBATE AVAILABLE ON SELECT SETS

at Main Road 846-5128 PROVIDENCE 277 Kdmph Stroot Nurther Annue & Re. & 861-4260 Nurther & Re. & 861-426

EAST PROVIDENCE

Barragement Park Departing Center 431 1928 Provincies 16 Los Loris Research Aye. - Black to a Stage Stage
Loris Research Aye. - Black to Stage Stage 278 West Mann Road 545-5128 177 Schools for

LISA GRIFFIN of Misquamicut surveys the last hole in the N.E. Women's Golf Championship.

N.E. Classic a perfect name; many area stars could win it

By PAUL KENYON
Journal-Bulletin Sports Writer

ment.
That could change this week. For the first time, several local players figure to have a legitimate shot at winning.

Post Favon, Jim-

figure to have a legitimate shot at winning.

Billy Andrade, Brad Faxon, Jimmy Hallet, Pat Horgan and Ken Green all have reasons to be listed among the favorities, to get me to make a pick." Mingolla sald with a smile when asked yesterday to forecast the tournament. "I've got 150 friends here. I don't want to make any of them mad.

"But I will say we've never had this many New England players in the tournament." Mingolla said. "Someone from New England is goling to win sometime, so..."

New England Classic pairings day's Pro-Am.

Last year, Newport's Horgan was in the hunt for the title before making a couple of late bogies and finishing in a tie for 12th. Horgan also comes in playing well. He is having a great season on the Hogan Tour, including two victories, and was second at New Haven, Conn., last week.

week.

Two years ago, Barrington's Faxon had a 12-foot birdle putt on the final hole that would have put him in a playoff with Blain McCalister. He returned to PV after missing last year's event and shot a 4-under 67 in the Pro-Am yesterday.

Hallet, the former Bryant College star who is having his best year on tour, had a 70 yesterday and hejed his team with the Pro-Am with a 16-under 85.

Connecticut's Ken Green, Fan Quinn, who is playing on his home course, and Dana and Brett Quifey.

By PAUL KENYON
Journal-Bulletin Sports Writer

- SUTTON, Mass. — The name of a PGA Tour event normally means only one thing.

Whether it's the Bulck or the Honda, the BellSouth Atlanta or Whether it's the Bulck or the Honda, the BellSouth Atlanta or MCI Heritage, or even Shearson Lehman or K Mart Greensboro, the many the Paul Heritage of the P sinderigt and Mark McCumber or elsewhere, cothers who have won here or elsewhere cothers who have won here or elsewhere.

Statistic reveats, Only three of the top 20 money winners and 80 of the top 20 money winners and 100 of 20 money winner at PV, withdrew Tuesday.

"He's lost about 25 pounds. He's rained physically and emotionally," Mingolla said. "He called me and talked to me about it. I don't know if he's ever missed a tournament here. But he has to get back to Houston and get his strength back." Scott Verplank, who was second here last year but who has yet to make a penny this year, also was a late withdrawal because of a hand liplary.

Parrillo.

Continued from Page C-1

Continued from Page C-1
spart. "I've been making a lot of good swings and I'm really hitting the ball well. But people don't want to hear that I start talking away to hear that I start talking some guy mode good in the best way to score."
He's 29 years old now. He and his wife. Bonnie, are the parents of,
two children.
He has been on the tour for eight seasons and earlier this year his official career earnings passed the $I'm illion mark. For this season alone, his earnings are at $105.182 and he has had four top 20 finishes. He has laways been the "name" guy among the local golfers, the guy given the best chance to succeed.
But that was before fellow Rhode Islander Billy Andrade began putting his own name up in lights with his back-to-back victories at Kemper and Westchester.
Now Brad Faxon is the other guy.

"Yeah, I'm hearing it," he admit-ted with a rueful smile. "People are saying it used to be 'Faxon and An-drade' and now it's 'Andrade and Faxon.' I just tell them, 'Well, we're just trying to do things ajpha-betically."

His sense of humor has not de-serted him. And there's no question he has been delighted with An-drade's triumphs.

But have the questions bothered

But have the questions bothered intensity to be a big wenter, they say.

But this could be a big week for him just as it had better be a big week for Pleasant Valley and its owner Ted Mingolia, who is going it alone again. Mingola has put up a $1 million purse and is staging a tournament without a title sponsor and without television. In the meabucks world of the PGA Touryou hardly ever hear that anymore. "You have to give him credit, hanging in there like that," said Faxon. "He has kept this tournament alive the hard way."

But Faxon knows what Mingolia needs this weekend. He needs some of the hocals, to make it past tomorrow's hailtway cut. It would help, for example, if Andrade, now the tournament's marquee name, made it past tomorrow. And it wouldn't hurt if Jimmy Hallet, the guy from Bryant College and Cape Cod, also played that College and Cape Cod, also played the Horgan of Newton the mention Pattern College and Cape Cod, also played may have been considered the Cod, and t

Sports/Business

Golf Football Recreation Scorebourd

Red Sox get no relief, fall to Twins 7-3

Journal-bulletin Spons Writer
MINNEAPOLIS — When manager Joe
Morgan held a pregame meeting with the Red Sox before last right's game, he saw no need to give his team a pointed message for the start of the second half of the season.

"I really thought 5½ (games behind Toronto) was message enough," said Morgan.
Apparently not
The news goes from bad to werse for the Red Sox, who, rather than play inspired base-

'New' era

for Pats dawns

in yawns

ball to begin the second half, stumbled to a 7-3 loss to the Minnesota Twins and dropped another game behind the first-place fible Jays. The Sox outhit the Twins 13-8, but stranded nine runners to Minnesota's one. In the field, the Sox made three costly mistakes and saw their most dependable reliever turn a 3-3 game into a four-run deficit.

"In a game like tonight," said Morgan, "when you're banging the hell out of the hall and only getting three runs and making the mistakes we made on simple plays, there ain't no way you're going to win.

"This was a big game for us,' in a way. We could have won, but we just couldn't put a floundering guy (Kevin Tapani) away and wrapi tu pearly."

Twice, the Red Sox put the leadoff man on base, but couldn't produce a run. Still, they larris lived and seventh when starter Greg Harris Ired and seventh when starter Greg Harris Ired group as a couldn't produce a run of the seventh when starter and seventh when starter and seventh when starter and seventh with the seventh with the seventh when starter and seventh with the seventh when starter and seventh when starter and seventh when starter and seventh when starter and seventh when seven

But after getting the force at second, Luis era dropped the ball before he could throw Rivera dropped t the relay to first.

A rare Gray walk put Twins on first and second. Mike Pagliarulo, who had earlier ho-mered, then lashed a double to right that drove in pinch-runner Jarvis Brown.

Gray then gave up a three-run, pinch-hit Turn to RED SOX, Page B-7

- Boston Red Sox (Roger Clemens, 11-5, 2.22) at Minnesota Twins (Allan Anderson, 4-7, 4.50) 8 p.m. ③ ⑤ WRRI, WSAR Radio The Sox are 9-2 in Friday night games this season.

46 players fire in 60s

at opening of PV golf By PAUL KENYON

By PAUL KENYON
Journab Rubient sports with ideal weather and perhaps the best course conditions ever, it was no surprise that the PGA tour starsripped apart Pleasant Valley Country Club yesterday with operations
But the first-day leader of the $1 million New England Classic is surprise. A major surprise.
Bruce Fleisher, a 42-year-old from Florida who has spent the last six years as a club pro, recorded eight brides on the way to a 7-under 64.
That was one shot better than corded eight birdies on the way to a 7-under 64.

That was one shot better than the quintet of Blaine McCallister, the 1989 champion here. Ernie Gonzalez. Denis Watson. Trevor Dodds and Ted Schulz. Six more, headed by Ian Bake-Finch — rapidly moving into the game's top echelon — were in at 66. They were Kenny Knox, Wayne Grady and three young-sters, long-hitting Neal Lancaster. Emilyn Aubrey and Brian Kamm.
Forty-six of the 151 starters had rounds in the 60s, the most ever in an opening round in the 25 PGA visits here. The previous best start was in 1987, when 41 Turn to CLASSIC. Page B-4

REYNOLDS

SMITHFIELD - Maybe I ex-

SMITHFIELD — Maybe I expected trumpets.

Some fanfare, or excitement, or maybe even the hanging of Patrick Sullivan in effigy. Something.

Some evidence this was going to be the start of some new era. Some indication that things are different, some symbolic gesture that this sorry franchise is finally headed off in the direction of some glorious new future. Maybe some public expections of all past sins, the shooning oreism of all past sins, the shooing away of all the old ghosts. Some-thing.

But there I was yesterday after-noon at the start of Patriots' training camp at Bryant College and the excitement was all somewhere else

Trust me.
The first clue that this new era is having some growing pains is that virtually none of the draftees, several of whom are supposed to be the cornerstones of this brave new Pats world, were there. Talk about cheap symbolism.
So there was no Pat Harlow the Irist-round offensive tackle from Southern California. No Leonard Russell, a secondround running back from Arizona State.

round running back from Arizona State.

No Jerome Henderson, the second-round defensive back from Clemson.

All of this only leads to the inevitable question: Suppose they gaze training camp and nobody came?

Some guy named Ben Coattes.

Some guy hamed Ben Coattes.

Some guy hamed Ben Coattes, but by mid-sternoon, he the ten only one of the 15 draft choices who had shown up. There were rumors that a couple more were expected later in the day. The word was that Henderson actually was in the vicinity, although, since the NFL says you can't be in camp unless you're signed, he wasn't three either.

Indeed, late last night, the Patrieither.

Indeed, late last night, the Patriots announced the signing of five of their draft choices, including Henderson. But none of that was enough to add some glitter to the camp opening.
Instead, there was a siew of free agents, a bunch of names that except on one names that fives to cited no one, names that figure to be long gone once the summe nds. New era? Yeah, right. It certainly didn't seem much It certainly didn't seem much like a new era when I arrived. Some of the free agents were filling out forms in a room that looked out over the back of the campus and the woods beyond. In a nearby room were several reporters; and

Turn to REYNQLDS, Page B-5

PEAKING IN THE VALLEY

rtin Photo by GLENN OSMUDS

THE WELCOMING COMMITTEE: Brett Quigley is hugged by his mother Geneva after he completed the first round of the New England Classic at Pleasant Valley Country Club. It was Brett Quigley's first round as a professional, He shot a 69.

Leader board

32-32 - 64 32-33 - 65 32-33 - 65

Turn to CLASSIC. Page B-4

Sheehan, 'the other Quigley' go 36 today for R.I. Amateur

By KEVIN McNAMARA Journal-Bulletin Sourts Writer

By KEVIN MENAMARA
JOURNAL BURLES STATE OF THE SEASY TO OVERTION
WARWICK — It's easy to overlook Paul Quijely and he's the first one to admit it. He pokes about wearing a shirt with "Brett's Dad" lettered on the back and
"Dana's brother" on the front, a tribute of sorts to one of Phode Island's premier golf families.

One of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state
of the state of the state of the state
of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the field at this week's State Amateur.

Many of the state's top amateurs have fallen by the wayside over the last three days but Quijely, of Barrington, remains.
He advanced to the tournamen's 36-hole final yesterday with match-play wins over Mike McOrrnick, and Don Wright.
He'll shoot for his third Amateur championship against co-medalist Pat Sheehan beginning at 8:45 this morning at Potowomut Golf Club.

Quigley's effort comes during a week when his mind should be wandering north, to Sutton, Mass. Son Brett is making his PGA Tour debut at Pleasant Valley and Dad is missing it.

"He's played some of his best golf when I'm not there so hopefully he'il do it again." Quigley said. "I just told him he has to make the cut so I can watch on Saturday and Sunday."

The appearance in the finals is Quigley's lifth, a credit to his continued excellence. He won the Amateur in 1987 and '88 and, as displayed all week, he looks like he's ready for another.

Quigley jumped out to a four-hole lead over McComrick in his morning match and coasted to a fand 3 win. The win over Wright, one of the week's hottest players, was more difficult. Wright is the president Turn to AMTEUR. Page B-5.

Turn to AMATEUR, Page B-5

While Brett Quigley was in Sutton. Mass., his father Paul, left, was win-ning two matches and advancing to the semifinals of the Rhode Island Amateur. Paul Quigley is shown watching the flight of his tee shot on the eighth hole.

CLOSER TO HOME

- Journal-Bulletin Photo by WILLIAM K. DABY

Briefly

SCORFROARD

AMERICAN LEAGUE: PAGES B-1, B-7 nesota 7 Kansas City 9 Toronto ston 3 Detroit 5 Texas 2 Méwaukee 5 Oakland 0 Chicago 1 Baltimore

For around the clock sports news, call Journal Line at 277-7777. Using a touch-tone telephone, enter today's access code 2963 and then one of the following category codes:

N.L. tusetuli 3612 internati Leavue 3613

Upsets derail Kriek, Annacone comebacks

By MIKE SZOSTAK

NEWPORT — Stadium Court at the Newport Casino became a burial ground yesterday for the comeback hopes of Johan Kriek and Paul An-nacone.

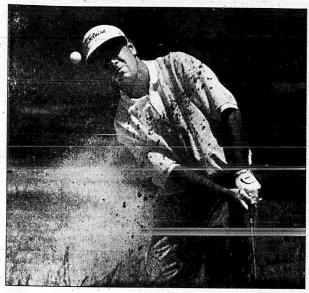

nacone.
Kriek, attempting a return to the pro tour after two elbow operations and an 18-month absence, rebounded from a slow start and took fifthseeded Christo van Rensburg to a third-set tibercaker before losing, 6-1, 4-6, 7-6 (7-5), in the second round of the Miller Lite Hall of Fame Ten-nis Championships.

Kriek, Winner here in 1981, lost more than the match. He crashed into the net post in the second set, bruised the soft tissue around his kidney and liver and will miss at least the Sovran Bank Classic in Washington next week and possibly the Canadian Open in Montreal July 22-28.

Annacone, returning after a sev-en-month, absence because of sur-gery on his left big toe, was stymied by the baseline tactics of Martin Wostenholme, a. Canadian whose highest computer ranking was No. 84 almost six years ago. Wostenholme beat Annacone, a five-time quarterfinalish tere, 64, 64, 84. Top-seeded Peter Lundgren also tost on the stadum grass. Told Martin the world, served 20 aces and beat Lundgren, ranked No. 60, 7-55, 2-6, 6-3. Van Rensburg and Kriek, native South Africans, have known each south of the state of the stat rally. 4 Transfer TFNNIS, Page 0-3

SAND BLASTER: Pat Sheehan chips out of a trap on the third hole of the R.I. Amateur Champion-ship yesterday at Potoxomut Golf Club. Sheehan meets Paul Quigley in today's 36-hole final.

Sheehan on golfing course

Drives, putts take place of slap shots, grounders

. By JOHN GILLOOLY

By JOHN GILLOOLY
Journal-budiers Jopen Writer
WARWICK — He started playing hockey when he was only two years old. By the time some of hisfriends first put on skates, Pat Steehan already was a hockey yeteran.
Thanks to his father and older tother. Sheehan also had a head start on his friends in baseball. By the time he was old enough for Little trague, he already had seen for about 12 years that was his soft grounders and fielded bunchsof grounders and fielded bunchsof grounders and fielded bunch for about 12 years that was his athletic life — baseball from April to September, then hockey for six or seven months.
But during his freshman year at legistim High. Sheehan lost fascination with the National Pastime. "I decided I wanted to try another sport."
So he became a golfer. This week decided 1 wanted to try another sport."

So he became a golfer. This weeks at Potowomut Golf Club playing in the R. I. Amateur, rather than playing with other freshly hatched pros in some northeastern state open tournament.

Yesterday he took two major steps toward winning his biggest amateur prize with victories over Mike Ryan and Rodney Butcher. Today Sheehan meets Paul Quigley, one of the most successful amateurs one of the most successful amateurs in Rhode Island history, for the state in Rhode Island history, for the state title.

When it came to golf, it was Sheehan's turn to catch up to teenagers who seemingly had grown up with their nine-irons.

"My father (former La Salle and Providence College hockey star Dan Sheehan) had just started giving golf instructions at the North Kingstown town course, so I started playing there. But these they knocked out. from town course, so I started play-ing there. But then they knocked out the family memberships, so my fa-ther got a family membership at Potowomut so we could play," Sheehan said.

He took advice from anybody who would give it, including his hockey-playing friend Butcher

"Rodney was great when I first started," Sheehan said. "He had started." Sheehan said. "He had been playing for a long time and he really helped me."

Sheehan played golf as much as possible, but every fall the clubs were put away and the hockey sticks came out.

"My father built a net in the garage and maybe once a week! The cook up most of my time during the winter when I was in high school."

Despite the last start — and with only limited commitment — Sheehan had somehow become one of the best young players in the state by his senior year. A few weeks after his graduation in 1987, he won the state Junior championship, beatthe state Junior championship, beating his friend Butcher in the title match.

Still, a Junior title doesn't have big-time collegiate coaches begging you to attend their schools.

you to attend their schools.
"I didn't get any college scholar-ship offers because I didn't play any of those national junior tournaments when I was in high school," said Sheehan.

When I was in ug.

"I had been recruited by the University of Hartford, so when I won the junior title I called the coach. He said that's great, but all the scholarship money had been given out."

By his sophomore year golf started staining on a new meaning in his likely of the started when the started with the said that is the said that the said that is the said that the said that is the said that the sa

"There were a couple of guys on my team who were seniors when I was a freshman. They turned proright after they graduated. They haven't made the big step to the PGA tour yet but they have been making money since their first year out there. I felt by my senior year I could be better than they were in their senior year. That's when I really started, thinking about becoming a pro." So a few years ago Sheehan started the quest.

So a few years ago Sheehan started the quest.
He always wanted to be a teach, and heeded to spend a semester student teaching in his senior year, which would cut his ability to play in the three and four-day college tournaments.
Sheehan asked his parents if he could add an extra semester to history to be a senior to he could add an extra semester to he could add an extra semester to give one of their four sons an extra semester of their four sons an extra semester of tuition so he could pursue mester of tuition so he could pursue

"My parents told me if that's what I wanted to do, somehow they would find the money for the extra tuition," said Sheehan. "As long as I finished school before I turned pro."

finished school before I turned pro."

Last year, in his final season of college competition, Sheehan was the top golfer in New England. Last spring he won the individual title in most of the major college tournaments in the northeast: the Yale Invitational, the New England Intercollegiate Championships, the West Point Invitational, the North Atlantic Conference chambionships. tic Conference championships.

Winning college tournaments in the mortheast doesn't make for a sure bet for the PGA tour, or even the tendency of the PGA tour, or expension of the tendency of the tendency money in my pocket when I go back to school."

"I haven't put a timetable on making it as a pro." said Sheehan. "Right now, I plan on remaining an amateur until at least after the Northeast Amateur next spring."
How important is an amateur championalip for somebody with "very important is an amateur championalip for somebody with "Very important." Sheehan said. "I finished second in this tournament three years ago, second in the Publinx this year, and lost in a playoff to Charlie Hayes in this year's stroke play tournament. It would mean a lot to win a state championship before I turn pro."
Especially for somenon who only eight years ago was spending his summers trying to hit fastballs rather than birdie putts.

Amateur
Continued from Page B-1
at Potowomut and a large gallery came out to cheer him on. The Quigley cheering section happened to be at Brett's side in Sutton. "That liked it,"
Paul Quigley said with a smile.
Quigley hed a 1-up lead after six holes and then doubled it two two holes by the tenth. Wright's bogey at 12 and another Quigley birdie on 14 pushed the lead to four, enough to hold off Wright's late charge.
Throughout the day, Quigley Isashed a pimpoint putting fouch, and
"It's rolling right now," Quigley said. "If led good with the blade and you need that to win here. You can'
twin matches without making birdieputts."
If there is one solfer hotter than

Amateur

If there is one golfer hotter than Quigley at this point, it's Sheehan.
The University of Hartford senior survived an emotional day with wins against two, good friends and fine players. He faced Mike Ryan in the morning and the two hooked up for the best match of week, with both players shooting under par.

Neither player could grab a lead until Ryan dropped a 50-foot birdie put at the sixth hole. He went 2-up after nine before Sheehan got hot. His three straight birdies wiped out Kyan's lead and the two stayed tied until Sheehan birdied the paral 16th. The match ended when Ryan's approach shot on 17 came up short of the green and led to a bogey. Sheehan knocked in a 10-foot par putt for the win.

oneenan knocked in a 10-foot par putt for the win. "That's why I didn't want to play Pat today," Ryan said. "That was a match that could've been a good fi-nal.

nal."
"I played about as good golf as I can on the back nine." Sheehan said.
"I knew I needed birdies because you can't make mistakes against Mike."

An hour after the tough win against Ryan, Sheehan met Rod Butcher, one of his closest friends.

Butcher advanced to the semis after digging out of a Gree-hole deficit by winning the final five holes against Matt Lucchesi. Sheehan put Butcher in a deep hole on the front nine, drilling four birdies and grabbing a four-hole lead. "Rod's been a good friend for a while but I knew he wasn't going to treat me like a good friend. He's trying to whomo ne."

while but I knew he wasn't going to treat me like a good friend. He's trying to whoop me.

The lead grew to five holes after Sheehan's third birdle in a row at the 12th. Butcher wouldn't quit and fought back to win the 13th, 15th and 16th but the match ended when he couldn't birdle the 17th.

Sheehan says he's happy to be back in the finals. He lost his first thance in 1989 to Dr. George Price.

"I wanted to get here again and I felt coming into the week that I could," he said. "Paul's (Quigley) tough though. The way he's playing. I'll come down to who can make the most birdles."

Put Demander Manufaches 2-to Don Weight and Manufaches 2-to Don W

Pats sign Henderson, 4 others

The New England Patriots, who opened training camp earlier in the beyond the property of the p nessee. With the arrival of the signees, the Patriots will have 42 players in camp as of today. The signees will have physical examinations this morning and take the field at 1:30 morning and take the field at 1:30 p.m.

Henderson, the 41st player, overall, chosen, is a 5-foot-10, 189 pound native of Statesville, N.C. He started the final 24 games of his collegiate career and, in his senior year, the Clemson secondary ranked sixthin the country in pass defense. It allowed only 87:9 yards a game.
Miller, 22, the first player chosen

lowed only 87.9 yards a game.
Miller, 22, the first player chosen in the seventh round, has played both center and guard in college. He was named an honorable mention
All-America last year by Football News. The 6-1, 285-pound Miller was the center for TOMMY HOD-SON, Patriots' quarterback, during the 1989 campaign at LSU.

Alcohol get equal treatment NFL commissioner PAUL TAGLIABUE has decided to view the abuse of alcohol in the same puniabuse of alcohol in the same puni-tive light as drugs and steroids. Any player who tests positive for drugs or steroids is suspended without pay for four games. Tagliabue now will apply that same penalty to a player who is convicted of an alcohol-rela-d incident.

Dallas Cowboys' owner JERRY JONES said he concurred with Tag-liabue's decision. "If K in any way to be considered to the control of everybody," Jones said.

Other Dallas players, who were everybody," Jones said.

Other Dallas players, who were informed of the policy Wednesday, don't hold the same view. "I think it's unfair because alcohol happens to be a legal substance unlike cocaine or marijuana," tight end AL-

FREDO ROBERTS said, "Prohibition was in the 1920s. This is 1991. I think we should focus on what the real problems are."

49ers sign top choice

49ers sign top choice
Defensive, lineman TED WASHINGTON, the 49ers' top draft choice, signed a four-year contract as training camp opened Wednesday without a rookle holdout in sight, "Right now, it's pretty positive," coach GEORGE SEIERT said. "It is unique and we're happy."

Robinson faces competition

The Raiders may be sending a message to JERRY hisson, the incumbent outside linebacker on the strong side of their defense, by working four players — AARON WALLACE, WINSTON MOSS, TIM COFIELD and TODD WOULARD — at his rostling.

Raiders top pick OK

Raiders top pick OK
So far, the Raiders' first-round draft pick last year, defensive end ANTHONY SWITH, has experienced no ill effects from the major knee injury that cost him his rookie season,
"it's great to see him on the field," said coach ART SHELL. "It's like we have two No. 1 draft choices."
—WIRE REPORTS

Reynolds

Continued from Page B-1

by the looks on their faces, you would have thought it was November of some lost season, not the first day of a so-called new era.

"This is the equal of a 1-15 season," muttered one.

Earlier, Dick MacPherson had been the centerpiece of a small press conference, during which he mostly railed against agents who keep their players out of training camps.

keep their players out or training, camps.

If anything, MacPherson seemed like some stranger in a strange land, not exactly used to this realist, where the dollar is more important than the playbook, where the first allegiance is to the contract, not to alma mater. This reality that has the overwhelming majority of the Pats' draft picks telling management to either sweeten the pot or waste your time running free agents your time running free agents through drills.

"I don't understand it," Mac-Pherson said. "Any good agent should know it's going to hurt a football player if he doesn't get all these practice opportunities," he said said.

Sorry, Dick.
Any good agent's top priority is to get all they can in the first contract, not how much time his client is going to get against the Colts in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis.
But you had to feel a little sorry for MacPherson. Here he is the new coach, right there with Sam Janko vich as the architect of this new era. And one of the biggest clubs in his bag is his enthusiasm, his college rah-rah spirit that he wants everyone to believe will be one of the elizers to turn this sad sack of a team around.

the elisers to turn this sad sack of a team around. Here he was at his first day of training camp and all the guys who are supposed to be about the future are AWOL.

Little wonder that MacPherson felt like some stand-up comic whose best stuff already has bombed and he still got too many minutes left in the act. Little wonder if he was secretly yearning for the Carrier Dome, back when he didn't have to worry about lawyers, guns and money.

"Am I disapointed?" he said. "I'm not surprised. I don't think I'm disappointed. Maybe I am. I wish they were all here. I guess I'm disappointed. High draft choices should be the leaders of the future. We're asking Harlow, we're asking Herderson to get their butt in here and let's go to work. And the rest will follow." Which you know will happen eventually. The draft picks will sign. The frate gaents will become little more than training fodder, footnotes to this Patriot season. Eventually, it won't matter that on the day the Pats opened training camp their top draft picks were all somewhere else.

somewhere else. But you could almost smell the ennul yesterday, the feeling that on this day when everything should be as upbeat as a soft drink com-mercial, this new season seemed to begin as last year's ended, the ex-citement all somewhere else. Not a trumpet to be heard.

NOW YOU CAN BUY OR LEASE FOR AS LIT

Now through August 18, factory-to-dealer incentives mean exceptional deals when you buy or lease a Volvo. But to find out just how exceptional, you'll have to see your Volvo dealer.

SEE YOUR PARTICIPATING VOLVO DEALER.

SportsWeekend

Tour de France
Tennis
Golf - '	4.
Scoreboard
Baseball	200
LOCAL NEWS	1000
TELEVISION	i

Rocket goes astray in Red Sox freefall

By SEAN McADAM
Journal-Bulletin Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS — It's probably asking too much to keep up with a team playing 550 ball over the last 20 games, as the Toronto Bulle Jays are doing, but the Red Sox are not even putting up much of a fight.

Any suggestions that the Red Sox would come back from the All-Star break with a renewed sense of purpose has turned out to be so much talk.

The Sox and Roger Clemens couldn't hold a two-run lead last night, and fell to the Minnesota Twins, 5-4, for their third consecutive defeat. They now have dropped to 71½ games back. At this rate, the Sox will soon be a distant speck in the blue Jays rear-view mirror. "We've got to quit looking at Toronto," aid Jack Clark, "and treat It almost like we're in fourth or fifth place, trying to win one gamed at time and get back in the business."

Actually, fourth or fifth place is quickly approaching. The third-place Detroit Tigers are a mere half-game behind the Sox and the Yankees aren't far behind.

In better times, the Sox could always count on Clemens to stand in the way of any losing streak, reversing the sliding fortunes. But this season, Clemens has been run over, too, with a 6-5 record following Boston losses.

In the fifth inning, the Sox parlayed their first back-to-back homers of the season (by Tony Pena and Luis Rivera, on consecutive pitches) into a 4-2 lead against Twins' starter-Allan Anderson.

But Clemens gave up a run in the fifth, the tying run in the sixth and the winning run in the seventh.

game, manager Joe Morgan blamed the loss on the luck of the Twins and home plate umpire Durwood Merrili.

"The guy behind the plate squeezed the devil out of Roger the whole game," said Morgan. "Terrible, absolutely terrible. He made Roger works o hard, it was brutal."

In reality, the Sox had finly themselves to blan

Faulty defense — again — contributed to Turn to RED SOX, Page B-8

- Boston Red Sox (Kevin Morton, 1-0, 1.00) at Minnesota Twins (Jack Morris, 11-6, 3.65)
- 8 p.m. (a) 38 WPRO, *WERI, WSAR Radio
- The Sox are on pace to hit 124 home runs and to sur-render 150 this season.

Seniors find balance between work and play

Newport club hard to find. but worth it

Jim

NEWPORT — The sun is shining, the skies are blue, the breeze is blowing off the occan and, from the first tee at the Newport Country Club, you can see sailboats tacking toward the Brenton Reef light tower. There is no better place in New England to watch golf. Pleasant Valley, you say? I say you've gol to be kidding. To get to P.V. you have to drive up Route 146, past no-tell motels and aging drive-in movie theaters. To get to Newport, you follow Cocan Drive, past Brenton College (1997). The control of the property of th

Hammersmith Farm.
If you were playing selected drives, how easy a choice would that be?
The clubhouse at Newport was designed by Stanford White. The clubhouse at P.V. looks as if it was designed by some guy named Whitey.
The membership at P.V. is comprised of people pamed Butch and Bubba. At Newport, the names are Barclay and Bent-Turn to POWN DESON. Peop. Be.

Turn to DONALDSON, Page R-4

THE LEGEND: Miller Barber slams a drive on the 15th hole during his match at yesterday's Newport Cup senior golf tournament.

Archer holds one-stroke lead over Dent

By ED DUCKWORTH

By ED DUCKWORTH
Journal Balletin Sports Writer
NEWPORT — After fifting a 7under-pa 65 in the opening round of $325,000 Newport Cup senior golf tournament yesterday, George Archer announced that instead of going to the practice range, he was going fishing.
"I was glad 1 had an early teetime," the 51-year-old Californian dold reporters, "because the wind wasn't very much of a factor,
And, of course, I'll have a few more hours to fish."
Archer didn't mention it, but

more hours to fish."
Archer didn't mention it, but the fact his 8:20 a.m. start assured him of a noon-hour finish wasn't likely to hurt his chances of bringing in a few blues as the tide went out at Castle Hill.
When girls."

out at Castle Hill.
When, right on cue, the windbegan piping up the Bay shortly after 1 p.m.. it soon became clear none of the 53 Senior Tour pros taking part in this three-day shootout would have much chance of catching Archer.
"The course will probably be a shot or two harder for the fellows

Turn to SENIORS, Page B-4

Leader board

George Archer Jim Dent Larry Ziegler SUMM

Billy Andrade fast becoming a holey terror

By PAUL KENYON

SUTTON, Mass. — Billy Andrade gave his fans a firsthand look yesterday at how he has gone about becoming the hottest new star on the PGA Tour.

In the process, Andrade, the Bristol resident who won both the Kemper Open and Buick Classic last month, also gave fans at Pleasant Valley Country Club a reason to get excited about the $1 million, New England Classic.

The Rhode Island Country Club product jumped ne knooe island Country Club product jumped to a great start — 4-under-par in his first four holes — and recorded a 5-under 66 to surge into a tie for second place at the tournament's midway point. Andrade is still three shots off the lead. Surprising first-day leader Bruce Fleisher had another fine day, a bogey-free 68 and tied the tournament re-

Turn to CLASSIC, Page B-5

Leader board SUMMARY ON PAGE R. S.

SEEKING DIRECTION: Billy Andrade tests the wind on PV's 15th fairway yesterday.

Quigley, down by 7 holes, beats Sheehan for R.I. Amateur title

By KEVIN McNAMARA Journal-Bulletin Sports Writer WARWICK — It wasn't easy being Pat Sheehan yesterday. At 11 am., the 21-year-old was on top of the world, holding a commanding lead over Paul Quigley in a battle for the Rhode Island Amateur golf Championshin B × 3 n m a battle for the Rhode Island Ama-leur golf champinoship, By 3 p.m., Shechan was still riding high and well on his way to the biggest vic-tory of his young career. But a disastrous final five holes cost Shechan dearly and ruined a week in which he had flashed the potential that caused many to pre-dict a bright future for him. Quigley took advantage of She-han's miscues and won the last three holes, gaining his third Ama-teur title on the 36th, and final, hole of the day. After falling behind by 7 holes hole of the day.

After Ialling behind by 7 holes after 13 holes of the morning fround, Quigley hung tough and came all the way back with his usual, machine-like consistency. He nailed down the victory by sinking a 5-foot putt on the 18th green. Sheehan missed a chance to send the match to extra holes when his 3-footer slipped by the cup.

UN-TRAPPED: Paul Quigley hits out of the sand on 5th

"Paul did well to hang in there like that," Sheehan said. "I just missed some shots I was making all week. There's pienty of shots I could take back." The biggest in that category likely came on the 16th hole, a par-3 that has an elevated green. Quig-ley hit first and his ball landed on the green. Sheehan hit a 7-iron that drew applause from the large crowd at the tee. When Sheehan arrived at the green, however, he couldn't believe he had actually flown the green.

"I hit 6-iron all week so I never thought the bail would be over."

Briefly

SCOREBOARD

AMERICAN LEAGUE: PAGES 8-1, 8-8
Minnesota	5	Detroit	6	Toronto	6	Chicago	8	New York
Boston	4	Kansas City	3	Texas	- 2	Milwaukee	6	California
Baltimore		Seattle	7				10.4
Onkland		Cleveland	0

JOURNAL LINE

Call Journal-Line at 277-7777. Using a touch-tone telephone, enter to-day's access code 6291 and the following category codes: A Linestell 2611 N.L. baseball 3612 Interun' League 2613

Don't blame Morgan for Sox' shortcomings FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH:

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH:

The criticism of Joe Morgan already has started, and if the Red Sox don't snap out of their lethargy very soon and start to make a legitimate run at those high-flying Blue Jays, it's only going to intensity, it will be misguid to intensity, it will be misguid to intensity it will be misguid to control to say Morgan is the reincarnation of Comite Mack, some baseshall vizard who con-of Connie Mack, some baseball wizaru who con-tinually is going to outmaneuver the opposing manager. Nor has anyone ever cited Morgan's motivational abilities. It's also no doubt true that Morgan is not a manager who is likely to jump the Red Sox over the past few seasons. Of course, it works better with a team that's going well.

BILL REYNOLDS

But Morgan is not the reason the Sox are floundering. The Sox have very real problems— lack of starting pitching and lack of offensive production being the most obvious—problems that transcend whether Morgan makes the right managerial niove or not.

n to REYNOLDS, Page 18-2

SUTTON, Mass. — The Quigley family golf celebration peaked at about 6 o'clock last night.

That's when, at almost exactly the same time, both DANA QUIGHES, same time, both DANA QUIGHES, as the same time, both DANA QUIGHES, were staging clutch finishes and same time, because the same time, because "Someone came out and told me when I was on the back side." Dana Quigley said. "That's great."

Dana, the pro at Crestwood Country Club in Rehoboth, was on the cut line all day, swinging be-tween one and two-under-par. He fell to 1-under, which would not have made the cut, when he three-putted the sixth hole (his 15th of the day) for a bogey. "I lipped out for bird, then missed

"Hipped out for bird, then missed it coming back." he said.
He came back and hit a three-iron within three feet on the eighth hole (his 17th) for the bird that gave him a second straight 70 and allowed mit to play on the weekend.
"The best part," he said, with a smile, "its that now I won't have to work this weekend."

Good timing

At almost exactly the same time Dana Quigley was finishing with a par on his final hole, his nephew was on the opposite side of the club-house, parring the 18th for a 71 and his 140 total.

his 140 total.

Brett Quijely, a pro for only one month, was as low as 4-under for a good part of the day. He had consecutive birdies at four, five and six, becoming one of the few players to reach the 606-yard fifth hole in two, where he hit driver-driver. Putting problems put him in trouble later, on.

on.
"I hit 17 greens (in regulation). I played really well," he said. "It could have been very low. I made three bogeys and they all came on three putts."

The last was at the par-3 14th.

But he parred in from the earned the right to play today

Faxon satisfied at 4-under

BRAD FAXON was upbeat after shooting a 68 and getting to 4-under for the tournament.

"I'm playing really well," he said.
"I didn't birdie any of the par 5s again (for the second day in a row but I didn't have any bogeys. I'm fine. A good round on moving day (the players' name for the third round) and I'll be all set."

Hallet soars to eagle

JIM HALLET assured himself of a check this week with a 71 for 140

"It was a little bit of everything." "It was a little bit of everything."
Hallet said. "It could have been good, but it could have been bad, too. It turned out to be just average."
The highlight was an eagle on the par-5 fourth hole, the low point a

Horgan misses cut

PAT HORGAN never got any-thing going and was the only local player to miss the cut. The former University of Rhode Island standout shot 74 for a 146 total, which in-cluded a 39 over his final nine holes yesterday.

Among those falling with him were WAYNE LEVI, last year's player-of-the-year, and Connecticut's KEN GREEN. Both missed by

Zyons works as caddy

There was another familiar face Brett Quigley's group the last two days.

MARK ZYONS, a former R.I.
Amateur Champion, caddied for JIM McGOVERN, one of last year's Hogan Tour graduates. Zyons has worked for McGovern all year. McCovern had a 74 for 145 total and missed the cut.

Watson suffers through a 9

The day's horror story belonged to DENIS WATSON. Watson was just one shot from the lead after the first round with a 65. champion has been dogged by a se-ries of injuries over the last several years and, at one point, was told by doctors that his career might be doctors that his cattert might were over.

He has battled back and played well in several events, including becoming the midway leader at West-chester last month. His week here fell apart when he made a nine on the 112-yard, par-4 17th hole (his eighth hole of the day yesterday). He finished with a 76 and missed the cut by one shot.

Pate falters

Pate falters

STEVE PATE, the highest rated player in the tournament (third on the money list) also had some problems.

Pate, who was in good position after an opening 67, took a six on the par-5 lifth hole and a seven on the par-5 lifth. He finished with a 74 and also missed the cut.

- Journal-Bulletin Photo by GLENN OSMUNDSON

FULFILLING THE LEADER'S DUTY: Bruce Fleisher signs an autograph after his round of 68, which allowed him to retain the lead at the midway point of the New England Classic at Pleasant Valley.

Classic

Continued from Page B-1

cord with an 11-under 131 through

No fewer than eight players are in the traffic jam at second place with Andrade. They include some serious players.

Blaine McCallister (69), who has won more money here than any other player in tournament history, is there. So is Australian Ian Baker-er player in tournament history, is there. So is Australian lan Baker-Finch (68), a man being touted as the game's next superstar. Ted Schulz (69), winner of this year's Los Angeles Open, John Daly (65), the longest hitter on tour, Mike Springer (67), Ernie Gonzalez (69) and Gene Sauers (67) also are in the pile at 134.

But there is no doubt about the fa-brotte. Andrade, carrying with him far and away the day's biggest gal-lery, was The Man yesterday. Unlike his earlier victories, he is doing his work this time on what amounts to his home course on tour. And with it, he has the added pres-sure of being the man in the spot-light.

light.
"It's very different," Andrade said. "I've done a pretty good job of staying focused. My biggest concern right now is to get healthier for the ekend and to get rid of this cold

I've got."

He is well aware that he has pro-on this year's money list, a misjor boost.

"Ted Mingolla (tournament chairman) did something nice for me, giving me an exemption into this tournament when I was 19-years-old," Andrade said. "He caught a lot of heat for giving a college freshman an exemption. It's nice if I can help him."

Andrade parred the first hole yesterday, rolled in a 25-foot britle on the second, and a 15-foot on the hird. He seems that the second in the 547-yard, par-5 fourth when he drilled a four-wood second shot on the green. Is feet from the hole, then canned the putt for an eagle.

gey in possing its oest score ever at SIII, his work was good only for a tir for second because Fleisher enver gave in the because Fleisher enver gave in the because Fleisher enver gave in the tournament record seet you not pooley two years ago, with his 131 total and second-round 67. Fleisher has given the tournament some spark himself. The 42-year-old veteran continued to be refreshingly self-effacing. For the second day in a row, he talked not so much about how ter-fife he was playing as about how talked not so much about how terrific he was playing as about how lucky he felt and how much he was enjoying himsel.

"I was very fortunate today," he said "I don't know if it's in the eards to do it for four days."

Already, though, he has earned considerable respect. The only other player ever to open the tournament with a 64, as Fleisher did Thursday, was Fred Marti, who did it in in 1974 — and promptly followed it with an 80, barely making he cut.
Fleisher insisted he was not even aware he had gone without a bogey aware he had gone without a bogey in the second round until someone pointed it out to him.

"Is that right?" he said.

"Remember, fellas, this is a bonus for me," he continued. "God knows what tomorrow may bring. But I'm just going to have fun." Fleisher won the U.S. Amateur in 1968, but had a lackluster 13-year PGA*Tour career that ended in 1983. He quit his club job last November when he got an itch to give the tour one more shot. He has been playing on the Hogan Tour this year and this is his first PGA event of the year and only his seventh since 1983. He was an alternate who got the last spot in the field with late withdraw-also m Tuesdan.

New England Classic scores

	At Sutton, Mass	Laty Roker	72-70 - 142
Bruce Fleisher	64-67 131	Bact Bryant	70-72 - 142
Tect Schulz	65-69 134	Rivi Curl	70-72 - 142 -
Mae Springer.	67-67 - 134	Stan Utley	75-67 - 142
Blane McCalliste	65-69 - 134	Mike San Filippo	73-69 - 142
John Day	69-65 - 134	Kim Young	71 71 - 142
lan Baker Finch	66-68 - 134	Dave Stockton	73-69 - 142
Ernie Gonzalez	65-69 134	- Lenne Clements	71-71 - 142
Billy Andrade	68-66 - 134	Ray Stewart	72-70 - 142
Gene Sauers	67-67 - 134	Loren Roberts	71-71 - 142
Kirk Triplett	76-65 - 135	Frank Conner	74-68 - 142
Brad Bryant	67-68 - 135	Tommy Moore	74-68 - 142
Ken Schull	69-66 - 133*	Rich Parker	70-72 - 142
Barry Janckel	70-65 135	Leonard Thompson	72-71 - 143
Kenny Knos	66-70 - 136	Dave Sutherland	73-70 - 143
Mike Donald	69-67 - 136	Brad Jardon	74-69 - 143
Navne Grady	66-70 - 136	Perry Arthur	70-73 - 143
Charles Briwles	68 68 - 136	Clara Burroughs	72 72 - 144
Joel Entwarts	68-68 - 136	Rehard Zonol	75-69 - 144
ance Ten Broeck	70-66 — 136	Jerry Haas	75-69 - 144
Jack Renews	68-68 - 136	Greg Ladehoff	72 72 - 144
in Dougherty	69-67 - 136	Durfley Hart	73-71 - 144
Robert Wrenn	69-68 - 137	Oto Browne	76-68 - 144
Burtifly Gardner	68-69 - 137	Mike Nucriette	74-70 - 144
red Funk	58-69 - 137	Fred Wadsworth	74-70 - 144
Ronnie Black	73-64 - 137	Brad Bed	72-72 - 144
Main McCullough	70-67 137	Dave Exhibitings	72-73 - 145
My Mayter	70-67 - 137	Bonty Claricett	74-71 - 145
Arco Dawson	69-68 - 137	Mark Hayes	71-74 - 145
stave Lowery	69-68 - 137	Tom Byrum	74-71 - 145
ies Lancaster	66-71 - 137	Jim McGovern	71-74 - 145
arry Silvera	70-67 - 137	Tommy Tolles	75-71 - 146
Javed Peoples	67-70 - 137	Pet Horgan	72-74 - 146
ionn Adams	69-68 - 137	Brandel Chambine	76-70 - 146
Aorris Hataisay	73-64 - 137	Mark Witshire	75-71 - 146
lead Faxon	70-68 138	Pat McGowan	72-75 - 147
ave Barr	68-70 - 138	Scott Gump	75-72 - 147
im Thorpe	70-68 - 138	Rusty Gunnarson	75-72 - 147
on Hiralie	71-67 138	Jim Benepe	75-72 - 147
into Estres	69-69 138	Clara Dennes	75-72 - 147
larence Rose	68-70 - 138	Larry Gallaction	76-72 - 148
iot Lare	69-69 - 138	Rotiert Thompson	76-72 - 148
lob Wokett	70-69 - 139	Distant Prints	74-74 - 148
lave Rummells	. 72-67 - 139	Dicky Thompson	75-73 148
a Botton	74-65 139	George Burns	71 77 148
irian Watts	70 69 - 139	Sean Murphy	72-76 - 148
Ay Fay Brown	70-69 139	Jim Carter	75-74 - 149
ill Kratnets-	71-68 - 139	Roger Martter	78-71 - 149
mlyn Autrey	66 73 - 139	Cart Cooper	76-73 - 149
urt Byrum	71-68 - 139	Mike Standy	73-76 - 149
reg Whaman	69-70 - 139	Tim Petrovic	76-73 - 149
art Compart	71-68 - 139	Mark Lye	78-72 - 150
em Randolph	72-68 140	DavidLane	75-75 - 150
lowerd Twitty	69.71 - 140	Ed Humena	78-73 - 151
lavet Ogen	71-63 140	Forrest Feder	78-73 - 151
Dev Sindelar	71-69 - 140	Mark Plesi	80-72 - 152
olan Herika	69-71 - 140	Mae Holland	76-76 - 152
reg Bruckner	71.69 - 140	Marc Hustidose	78-90 168
revor Dodds	65-75 - 140	Jeff Bailey	81 - WD
e Janzen	69-71 - 140	Jim Nelford	DNS

Parings and Stating Times.

8.17 a.m.— Fine Dume and Britt Query. 8.70.
Dista Oudes and Barn, Oreenans. 8.26.— Byran
Jatim and Barn, Emer Barn. 19.8.— Byran
Jatim and Barn. 19.6.— Cerg Brocken
Jatim and Barn. 19.4.— Byran
Jatim and Barn. 19.4.— Byran
Jatim and Emyl Anders. 19.8.— Birt Brozen
Jatim
Jatim and Emyl Barn. 19.5.— Birt Brozen
Jatim
Jatim and Emyl Barn. 19.20.— Birt.
Byran and Emyl Barn. 19.20.— Birt.
Byran and Emyl Barn. 19.20.— Birt.
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.20.— Birt.
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.20.— Birt.
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.20.— Birt.
Jatim Lam, Share Jan Disor Barn. 19.22.— John
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.22.— John
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.22.— John
Jatim Barn. 19.8.— Birt. 19.22.— Birt.
Jatim Lam, Share Jan Disor Byran, 19.8.— 19.8.

11.3.— Lam, Share Jan Disor Byran, 19.8.— 19.8.

12.4.— Birt. 19.6.— Birt. 19.8.— Birt.
Jatim Lam, Share Jan Disor Byran, 19.8.— 19.8.

13.6.— Lam, Share Jan Disor Byran, 19.8.

14.6.— Birt. 19.8.— Birt. 19.8.— Birt.
Jackel and Kern, Kron. 12.20.— Birt.
Byran and Kern Statu. 12.8.— Gern. Sauer and An Topical 19.3.— Eme Groupez and Birt.
Jan.— Birt. 19.8.— Disor Byran and Barn. 19.8.

15.6.— Birt. 19.8.— Disor Byran and Barn. 19.8.

15.7.— Birt. 19.8.— Disor Byran and Barn. 19.8.

15.8.— Birt. 19.8.— Disor Byran and Barn. 19.8.

15.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Disor Barn. 19.8.

15.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

15.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

15.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

16.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

17.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

18.9.— Birt. 19.0.— Birt. 19.8.

19.9.— Birt. 19.0.—

Salamone wins Mass. Amateur

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Former professional John Salamone, am-pushed in the first round of match play in the state amateur a year ago, look his revenge yesterday by laiming the championship in the 33rd Massachusetts Amateur toursalamone, of Framingham, whipped George Popp of Indian Ridge, 11 and 9, in a slow, tedious and one-sided scheduled 36-hole fi-tal at Brae Burn Country Club.

Salamone threw out his own pre-natch strategy in the finale, win-ung at the turn on the second round ifter noting the day before that typically, every match is won on he last nine holes."

The 31-year-old computer soft-vare salesman was winning a state die for the first time in a checkered areer that included a brief stint as a rofessional golfer after his gradua-ion from LSU.

Salamone threatened to blow topp away in the early holes of the norning round as he had done to everal other victims during the putt for an eagle.

"I've never started like that on this golf course," Andrade said.
"The crowd really gol into it."
Il helped that the others in Andrade's threesome, defending champion Morris Hastisky (who had a both the course playing well. Among) also were playing well. Among it is a start of the course of the country of the country was an aiternate wno got the last spot in the field with late withdrawals on Tuesday.

Andrade actually was the steady one after his hot start, making two more birds (10 and 17) and one bo-

The tree of the state of the last of the state of the state of the state of the state of the back into hit another into a tree behind the fifth green.

"That was a lucky break, if it doesn't hit the tree it probably would have gone into the hazard or who knows where," he said of his approach on the fifth hole.

Fleisher hit plenty of good shots, too. The longest of his four bride putts was only 12 feet, and he finished with a flair, nearly holing out his wedge approach shot on his final hole (the ninth) and tapping in an 18-inch putt for his 11th bird in two days.

The scores were tremendous all The scores were tremendous all day. Yesterday alone, 109 of the 151 players shot par or better on the 7.110-yard, par 71 course. The players had set an opening-round record with 46 rounds in the 60s. Yesterday, there were 65 more.

Amateur

Continued from Page B-1 Sheehan said. "I went up there and I was kind of in shock."
He flubbed the chip shot and had to settle for a bogey. Quigley took a par, cutting the lead, which had looked insurmountable at one time.

"He hit better the right shot but the adrenaline carried that ball a little turther than he wanted it to." Quigley said of Sheehan's shot.

Sheehan missed the green with his approach shot on 17 and missed a 9-foot par putt. Quigley made his par, tying the match.

On the 181th, both players missed the green, but Quigley sank the big par putt, and Sheehan could not.

"You've got to have patience to play this game and you especially need it when things are going bad."

"You've got to have patience to play this game and you especially need it when things are going bad."

I had to win the next hole. You have to win one hole at a time."

Sheehan dug the huge deficit for Quigley with a sizzling display over the first 18 holes. He shot a 5-under ar 68 and never really had a long, tough putt. Sheehan hit five birdies and didn't bogey a single hole. You've got to have Sheehan said. "I went up there and I was kind of in shock." patience to play this game and you especially need it when things are going bad. I didn't think like I was seven down. I just thought I had to win the next hole. You have to win one hole at a time.'

PAUL QUIGLEY "I was excellent in the morning."

He holed in a chip out of a sand trap on the sixth for a birdie and made birdie putts at 7, 10 and 13. Quigley was 2-over at that point and seven holes down in the match. Birdies by Quigley at the 14th and 15th cut the lead to five holes after 18.

"He pl;yed a perfect round," Quigley said. "He never hit a bad shot. Usually par or better, you have a chance, but this morning I shot 71 (even par) and was down five holes."

Sheehan bogeyed the second hole of the afternoon round but came back with huge putts that held off Quigley on the 7th, 9th and 10th holes.

The lead shrunk to three holes on the 12th when Sheehan missed the green with his approach and couldn't save par. "That one was hig because I was up four with seven to play and that would've been tough." Sheehan said.

Both players parred 13, and when Sheehan missed a four-footer for par at 14, his slide was on.

par at 14, his slide was on.

Sheehan said he didn't get cautious on his strokes. "You can't sit back and try to make pars, and I didn't, 'he said. "It just happened,"
"When you jump off to such a hig lead, you might get defensive and not even know it." Quijecy observed. "I know it's a tough one for Pat but he's a very good player.
He'll have his day."

PAT SHEEHAN: "You can't sit back and try to make pars, and I didn't. It just happened."